

'HOME AT LAST' — Joe Thomas called it "the most explosive trade I've ever been involved in." It was the one that brought O.J. Simpson, the incomparable running back, home to San Francisco, where he used to scalp tickets outside Kezar Stadium in his youth. There were only smiles at the press conference announcing the trade (from left): General Manager Joe Thomas, O.J. Simpson, 49ers owner Edward J. DeBartolo, Jr., and Head Coach Pete McCulley.

President

At 32 the youngest owner in The National Football League, Edward J. DeBartolo, Jr., is also one of the nation's youngest top executives in a major national corporation. He is also Executive Vice President of the Edward J. DeBartolo Corporation, a versatile and enormously successful company that among other things is recognized as the largest shopping center development firm in the United States.

The DeBartolo Corporation, founded in 1948 by Edward J. DeBartolo, the son of an immigrant and father of Edward, Jr., has become one of America's great business success stories. Headquartered in Youngstown, O., the Corporation designs, develops, builds, owns and operates regional enclosed shopping malls, 42 in all at this time. By 1980, the total is expected to reach 54, from Florida to Caufornia.

In addition, the Corporation also owns thoroughbred race tracks, motels, industrial and executive parks, a foreign trade zone in conjunction with a stevedoring operation, and is a major stockholder in three banks.

As President and General Partner of San Francisco 49ers, Ltd., Edward Jr., controls 90% of the club, with limited partners Jane Morabito and Franklin Mieuli each owning five percent.

Edward, Jr., went to work for his father at age 12, shoveling snow at shopping centers. By age 15 he had been promoted to grounds and building maintenance crews and, later, while attending Cardinal Mooney High School in Youngstown, he worked with construction crews at the shopping centers.

In 1968, after graduating from The University of Notre Dame, from which his father also graduated, Edward, Jr., went to work in the office of The DeBartolo Corporation. He moved from department to department following the same schedule and meeting the same requirements and standards as everyone else in the company's executive training program.

Appointed a vice-president in 1971, he became executive vice-president in 1976 directing a staff of 300 people including the in-house operations of engineers, architects, designers, financiers, lawyers, leasing experts, management and operations teams, advertising, public relations and promotion personnel.

Edward, Jr., lists his hobbies as golf and football, which is no longer just a hobby.

Active in a number of charity organizations, Edward, Jr., has headed up cancer and Heart Fund drives, and is also a director of a youth center and a member of the board of trustees of Youngstown State University.

His wife is his childhood sweetheart, Cynthia, and they are parents of three daughters, Lisa Marie 8, Tiffanie Lynn 7, and Nicole Ann 3.

Edward J. DeBartolo, Jr.:

"We have always been in the people business, and owning a National Football League team is no different. Being in the people business means being fair, doing things in a first class manner, not hurting people and cooperating with people all the time. That's always been the way we did things at the DeBartolo Corporation before we owned the football team, and I believe that we did things that way here in 1977. We will continue to do so in future years with the San Francisco 49ers."

"There were a lot of ups and downs last year. With the new ownership, I think that things were a little tentative all the way around last year. We had our share of ups and downs, but I would have taken every one of the defeats along with the five wins. We all learned a lot in 1977, and I expect things to go much more smoothly in 1978."

"I think that we are putting together a super organization here. The physical plant, the coaching staff, everyone in the organization . . . and with someone like Joe Thomas running the show and pumping the talent into the program, how can we go wrong?"

"With the talented football players we are getting in here, I think it's just a matter of time before we get things turned around and give the people of the Bay Area the kind of 49ers football team that they want. The excitement of having people like O.J. Simpson, Freddie Solomon, Wilbur Jackson, Cleveland Elam, Cedrick Hardman . . . that gives us the nucleus for building a perennial playoff contender. With a few wins, we'll build that togetherness and get some things done."

"This is the most exciting thing I've ever been involved in. I hope that we can convey that type of feeling and attitude to our fans."

Joe Thomas

Vice President and General Manager

"The man not to sell short is Joe Thomas. He knows what he's doing. He'll produce a winner for San Francisco eventually."

-Oakland Tribune, Jan. 13, 1978

"Eventually" may not be far off.

Thanks to the efforts of this man, the premier builder of championship teams in the National Football League, the San Francisco 49ers are on the verge of turning it around.

Joe Thomas brought the 49ers a new football coach and has made a number of trades since the end of the 1977 season, the most notable being the acquisition of the incomparable O.J. Simpson.

But he has also added people like Freddie Solomon, Vern Roberson, Larry Jones, Greg Boykin and Joe Harris, all of them good young football players who will contribute mightly to the 49ers' future.

And then, in the 1978 college draft, he came up with tight end Ken McAfee and linebacker Dan Bunz with a pair of first round draft choices, and added a number of bright prospects later. "The owners around the National Football League must have thought Merlin the Magician was wielding his hand over the recent draft," it was written in the San Francisco Progress. "No, my friends, it wasn't Merlin. It was the 49ers General Manager Joe Thomas."

If things turn out on the football field as good as they look on paper, then Thomas will have brought the 49ers back, just as he did with the three other football teams with which he has been associated.

Initially, it was the Minnesota Vikings, during their early years as an expansion team, that Thomas helped organize, then elevate to the championship level that they have maintained for so long.

Later, as the first employee of the Miami Dolphins, also an expansion team at the time, he developed and stocked the Dolphins with players that produced back-to-back Super Bowl champions. It was Thomas who drafted Bob Griese, Larry Csonka, and who engineered the deal that brought Paul Warfield to Miami.

With the Baltimore Colts, whom he served as General Manager, Thomas met a challenge again, but somewhat differently. This time, he took an established, but declining club and built it into the quality team the Colts are today.

He drafted quarterback Bert Jones, and, despite heavy criticism at the time, traded away aging Colts for new players and draft choices, in an eminently successful youth movement.

After the 1975 season, in which the Colts made the playoffs for the first time in five years, Thomas was acclaimed Executive Of The Year by The Sporting News, and Man Of The Year by the Football News and the Chamber of Commerce of metropolitan Baltimore.

Born in Warren, O., the 55-year-old Thomas is a graduate of Ohio Northern University, where he was a wide receiver in football and also played basketball. In 1975, his alma mater honored him with an alumni citation.

Following graduation from college in 1943, Thomas served in the U.S. Navy, participating in and helping administer physical fitness and athletic programs at Bainbridge naval base and the Great Lakes Naval Training Center.

Thomas began his coaching career in 1946 as an assistant at New Albany (Ind.) High School. The following year he became head coach at Rensselaer (Ind.) High School, then, in 1948, moved to DePauw University as assistant football and basketball and head baseball coach.

He became assistant football and basketball coach at The University of Indiana, where he helped Branch McCracken lead the Hoosiers to the 1953 NCAA basketball championship. While at Indiana, he also earned a master's degree, and did additional work toward a doctorate.

In 1954, Weeb Eubank brought Thomas to Baltimore as defensive line coach and to assist in the personnel department. He moved to the Los Angeles Rams in 1955 and to Toronto of the CFL in 1957, then to Minnesota as the first employee of the Vikings in 1960.

Always active in charity work, Thomas has recently served as honorary chairman of the Maryland Boy Scouts membership drive, state chairman of the Maryland Epilepsy Foundation, and has served on the board of directors of the Maryland Special Olympics and the board of directors of Buddies. Inc., a Baltimore area foundation which raises funds for recreational areas and boys clubs.

Joe and his wife, Judi are the parents of a daughter, Paige.

They said it . . . . .

Joe Thomas:

"I am not in the business of making athletes happy, only of making the fans happy. I will do whatever I feel is necessary to build a winning team. There are 28 of us in the league and we all want the same thing: the Super Bowl. You must funnel every effort into achieving that single goal."

"Football players talk to other football players around the league. They know what type of a guy Joe Thomas is. They know that if they're a good football player and their attitude is good, Joe Thomas isn't going to get rid of them. They know that if they play well, that they're going to get paid well. If they don't play well, they won't get paid well. It's that simple."

"I've never been to a team meeting and I never will. I don't get involved with X's and O's. And I've never questioned a coach on why he did this or that during a game."

(On trades) "We'll throw a lot of names back and forth, back and forth. It's like fishing, you see. You throw in the line, keep throwing it in, and then you get a nibble. If something hits and sounds good, I point my nose in that direction. And I'm a pretty good bird dog."

"In our structure, everything must channel through me. I'm responsible to the owners, to the coaches, to the players and ultimately to our fans. I can accept that responsibility. I try to do what's best for the ball club. Any time the 49ers make a move, it will be because I think it's for the good of the organization and for no other reason. The coach will always know what is happening with personnel, and I'll expect him to keep me informed as well."

"The guts of your football team is really the draft. Either you succeed or fail by the draft. The draft is the way you start and the way you continue. However, you can't be afraid to trade. We're always looking to upgrade our football team. If there is a quality football player available, we're always willing to listen."

"You have to be very careful about who becomes the core of your football team. If they're not good character-wise, you can be in trouble. It's like a tree. It's no good if the core is rotten. It may look good on the outside, but you know what'll happen the first time the wind blows. But if the core is good, you can patch up the outside and the core will keep the tree going for a long time."

"There are no guarantees (on how to build a football team). There's no proof, no nothing. If there were guarantees, we'd all be basking down in Acapulco, enjoying life, owning all those hotels."

COACHING STAFF

PETE McCULLEY

Head Coach

Coach

Begins his 18th year in the coaching profession, his first as a head coach, after having spent the past five years as an offensive assistant with the Baltimore Colts and Washington Redskins of the National Football League. He comes to San Francisco after having been receiver coach with the Colts from 1973 through 1976 and with the Redskins in 1977. While with the Colts McCulley also worked with quarterback Bert Jones and was recognized as one of the major contributors to the rise of receiver Roger Carr to All-Pro status. At Washington he was given credit for the emergence of tight end Jean Fugett as one of the NFL's premier receivers. A believer in a balanced offense, McCulley is nonetheless an advocate of the "big play" philosophy and believes that "taking a chance now and then is part of the game." "I believe in balance," he said, "but I also believe in utilizing the 'big play' when the opportunity presents itself. I like to see some action out there and want a hardnosed running attack, but I want the big pass play, too." Before entering the NFL with Baltimore in 1973. McCulley had served as an assistant coach with the offense at Stephen F. Austin University in Texas, 1960;

University of Houston, 1961-62; Baylor University, 1963-69, and the U.S. Naval Academy, 1970-72. In assuming his first head coaching job, McCulley becomes San Francisco's ninth head coach since the team's founding in 1946. Pete is also considered an expert in conditioning for football players and worked with conditioning programs with both Baltimore and Washington.

Player:

Was an All-Conference quarterback at Louisiana Tech (Ruston, La.), which, coincidentally is also the alma mater of Colt Roger Carr. Another coincidence, Ruston is the hometown of Colt QB Bert Jones. Graduated in 1956.

Personal:

Born 11/29/31 in Franklin County, Mississippi. Married, wife's name is Nettie. They are parents of two children, son Kit, 21, is a midshipman at the U.S. Naval Academy and plays in the backfield on both offense and defense for Navy, while daughter, Kim, 19, is a student at Arundel College in Annapolis.

They said it . . . .

Pete McCulley:

"I feel very good about being head coach of the 49ers. Number one, I feel we have the best general manager in football, and number two, when I took the job here, I didn't feel I was inheriting a team without talent. And with Joe around to get us outstanding football players, we'll continue to get better. There's no question about it, the 49ers are on the rise."

"I think it is very important to communicate. I try and get involved with my players. I'll lift weights and run the exergenie with them. We're definitely in the people business and being able to understand other people is important. And part of that is being a good listener. It should be more a relationship of having mutual respect. I'm here to help the players improve, to help them reach their goals."

"I will admit there is a big difference between being an assistant and being a head coach. When you think of all the good coaches and good teams in the NFL, it's an awesome responsibility. You do multiply your own responsibilities several times. That's the reason it's good to have your assistant coaches involved. In addition to the coaching staff, the head coach has to be involved with the offense, defense and special teams, and every facet of football. I've been an assistant a long time, and I've been around some excellent coaches. I feel like I'm prepared."

"I'm a positive person. I don't come unglued when the heat is on. Players like coaches who can function in a stress situation and, believe, me, the NFL is a stress situation."

"I'm not really all that concerned about last year. I don't want to over-critique the players based on last year. I'm not one to look back. I just want to be objective in our teaching and coaching. It's too easy to be critical,"

"My view is to put the emphasis on one-on-one with each player. I sell the players that they can do things which will help them and the team. It's a challenge — whatever I've got to do, I'll do it."

(On working with Joe Thomas) "I fully understand how this organization is run. I have a good relationship with Joe and I'm only concerned about the coaching. I completely respect him and admire what he's done. I couldn't be in a better situation."

Joe Thomas:

"Pete's a very intelligent man, a very honest man, a good football coach and he relates well with the players. That's the important thing."

"He's not new to me, and I'm not new to him. I know what he can do. When you hire an assistant coach to be your head coach, you put him on trial because he has no track record. But I believe together we can give San Francisco fans the kind of team they've been waiting for."

JIMMY CARR Defensive Backs

Coach

Jimmy Carr has been making his living in the National Football League for a long time, beginning his 13th season as a coach after a long playing career. He spent the 1977 season tutoring the Buffalo Bills' linebackers, after serving as defensive coordinator for the Detroit Lions.

in 1975 and 1976. He was previously with the Minnesota Vikings (1966-68), the Chicago Bears (1969), the Philadelphia Eagles (1970-72), and the Chicago Bears again (1973-74), giving him a total of 12 years service in the NFL coaching ranks.

Player

Carr spent a total of ten years in the NFL and one in Canada. He started his career with three seasons with the Chicago Cardinals (1955-57), before moving to the Montreal Alouettes for the 1958 season. He returned to the NFL in 1959 for a five-year stirit with Philadelphia, helping the Eagles to the NFL title in 1960. He closed out his playing career with two seasons for the Washington Redskins. Carr was a two-way halfback in college at Morris Harvey in Charleston, W. Va., graduating in 1954.

He was a pilot for Continental Airlines in 1967 and 1968. Frank and his wife, Barbara, have a son, Frank, Jr., 16, and a daughter, Jennifer, 15.

EARL LEGGETT Defensive Line

Coach

Another veteran of the National Football League as both a player and a coach, Earl Leggett joins the 49ers this season after spending two years with the Seattle Seahawks. As in Seattle, he will coach the defensive line. Prior to coming to Seattle, Leggett served as defensive line coach for the Southern California Sun of the World Football League for two years. He began his coaching career at the college level with Nichols State in 1971, and then spent two seasons at Texas Christian University before moving to the Sun.

Plaver

Following an All American career at Louisiana State University, Leggett was a first round draft choice for Chicago in 1957. Coming back after knee surgery sidelined him for the entire 1961 season, he was a member of the Bears' 1963 NFL championship team. He was traded to Los Angeles in 1966 and spent a year with the Rams before going to New Orleans in the 1967 expansion draft. He played two more seasons for the Saints to close out his 11-year career.

Personal

Born 3/5/34 at Palatka, Florida. Earl and his wife, Bobbie, have four children: Earl, Jr., Dana, Celi and Brad.

FRED O'CONNOR Offensive Coordinator

Coach

Fred O'Connor, the new offensive coordinator for the 49ers, is in the enviable position of having coached Walter Payton for three years and now looks forward to directing an offense featuring O.J. Simpson, Jim Plunkett and Wilbur Jackson. O'Connor was on Jack Pardee's staff with the Chicago Bears for the past two seasons as offensive backfield coach, his association with Pardee having begun in Orlando with the Florida Blazers of the World Football League in 1974. He began coaching in 1966 as offensive coordinator at C.W. Post and spent four seasons there before moving to Villanova in 1970 in the same capacity. He spent a year at Maryland (1971) and a year at Southern Mississippi (1972) before returning to Villanova as assistant head coach and offensive coordinator in 1973.

Player

O'Connor was a quarterback and running back at East Stroudsburg (Pennsylvania) State, graduating in 1962

Personal

Born 9/1/39 in Brooklyn, N.Y. Fred and his wife. Marge, have two children, Jill and Fred

DAN RADAKOVICH Defensive Coordinator and Linebackers

Coach

After a successful four-year stint coaching the offensive line for the Pittsburgh Steelers. Dan Radakovich returns to the other side as the defensive coordinator for the 49ers. He molded the Steelers unit into one of the league's best, and hopes are that he can do the same for the 49ers defense. He had coached the detensive line for the Steelers in 1971 before leaving for a twoyear period to be defensive coordinator at the University of Colorado in 1972 and 1973. He returned to the Steelers in 1974. He served for 13 years on the defensive staff at Penn State (1957-1969) before going to the University of Cincinnati for the 1970 season.

Player

He was a star center and linebacker for the Nittany Lions for three seasons (1954-56), and started three of four pre-season games for the Philadelphia Eagles in 1957 before being released.

Personal

Born 11/27/35 in Kennywood, Pennsylvania, He was captain of the football and basketball teams at Duquesne High School, Dan and his wife, Nancy, have four children; Dan. 19, Lisa. 15, Leslie, 12, and Lori. 9.

FLOYD REESE Strength and Conditioning

Coach

The youngest member of the 49ers staff, Floyd Reese begins his fourth year in the National Football League at the age of 29. He will also assist with the special teams and serve as a defensive assistant. He spent the past three seasons in a similar role for the Detroit Lions after coaching for four years at UCLA (1970-73) and one year at Georgia Tech (1974). He began his coaching career at his alma mater, Liberty Union High School in Brentwood, Calif. in 1970.

Player

He is active in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. He and his wife, Christine, are parents of Christian, a baby boy born in April.

MIKE WHITE Offensive Line

Coach

Although Mike White makes his professional coaching debut as a member of the 49ers staff this season, he is no stranger to area football fans. He has coached at the college level at California and Stanford for the previous 19 years, spending the last six as head coach at Berkeley.

His Golden Bear team was co-champion of the Pac-8 in 1975, and White was named West Coast Coach of the Year for his efforts. He also was the victorious coach in four post-season all-star games, the East-West game in 1976, the Japan Bowl in 1976 and 1977, and the Hula Bowl in 1977. White served as an assistant coach to John Ralston at Stanford from 1963 through 1971, the Cardinals winning the Pac-8 championship and the Rose Bowl each of the last two seasons. He began his coaching career as an assistant at Cal in 1959, spending four years on the staff before moving to Stanford.

Player

Mike won nine varsity letters at California, three each in football, rugby and track, and served as captain of each team in his senior year. He was an honorable mention All-PCC selection at end for the football Golden Bears in his senior season. He graduated in 1958 with a degree in business administration.

Personal

Born 1/4/36 in Berkeley. He attended Acalanes High School in Lafayette, and following graduation from Cal, spent two years in the Army. Mike and his wife. Marilyn, have three children, a daughter, Carrie, 18; and two sons, Chris, 16, and Matt, 7.

ADMINISTRATIVE STAFF

HOWARD WHITE Director of College Scouting

One of the best-known and most-respected career tootball men in the business. Howard White begins his third season as director of San Francisco 49er talent scouting at the collegiate level.

White, 52, joined the 49ers prior to the 1976 season after four years as a regular supervisor (western half of the United States) for BLESTO, a nine-team scouting organization.

In addition to spending a great deal of time on the road himself. White supervises a three-man scouting staff consisting of veteran football men Neil Schmidt. Bob Cegelski and Ernie Plank

A 1948 graduate of the University of Southern California, Howard White was football coach for 17 years, 11 of them as a head coach at high school, junior college and college levels. Along the way, he served five years as assistant coach with Ray Willsey at the University of California, 1963-67.

A native of Tacoma, Wash., White and his wife, Dorothy, are the parents of two children, Robin, 16, and Tag, 13.

CHICO NORTON Equipment Manager

Forrest "Chico" Norton has become a virtual San Francisco 49er institution. Chico, whose nickname comes from his hometown of Chico, Calif., begins his 24th year as 49er equipment manager with the well-deserved reputation of being one of the most knowledgeable men in the business.

Responsible for the myriad things that go with providing the team with the best in protective and working equipment. Norton is also in charge of moving that equipment, uniforms and all the other paraphernalia to pre-season training camp, back to regular season camp, to Candlestick Park for home games and to the sites of all the road games.

Chico also works for the San Francisco Giants stadium maintenance crew at Candlestick Park, putting in half a season with the Giants before joining the 49ers for their full season.

Chico first entered professional athletics when he went to work for the San Francisco Seals baseball team in 1948. He joined the 49ers in 1956. Norton and his wife, Sylvia, live in San Francisco.

FRED SCHWAKE Head Trainer

One of the most important members of any athletic staff is the trainer. In football, because of the contact nature of the game, the trainer is even more important, and the 49ers have an excellent one in Fred Schwake.

This is Schwake's second year as head trainer, after joining the club as assistant trainer. Prior to coming to the 49ers, he served as assistant trainer for the Atlanta Falcons for three years.

A 1967 graduate of the University of Texas at El Paso, Schwake, 32, has worked at the high school, college and professional level, having worked at the University of Florida and with the Los Angeles Dodgers in addition to the time spent with the Falcon staff.

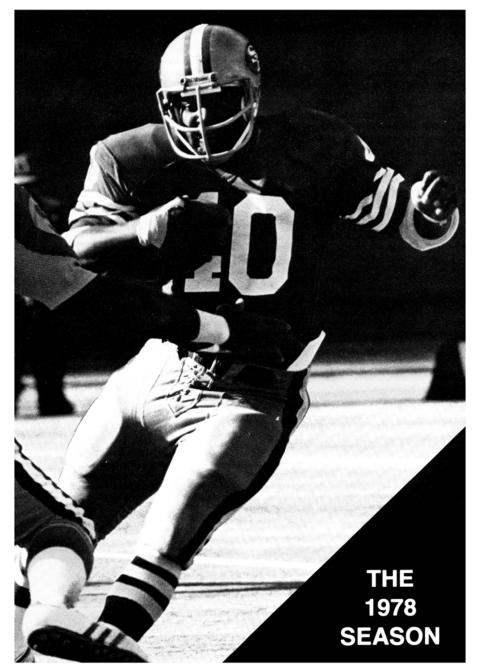

A native of Odessa, Tex., Fred and his wife, Lynne, now make their home in San Jose, Cal. Schwake is assisted by Hall Wyatt, a graduate of North Texas State. Wyatt ran a sports medicine clinic in Dallas for three years before joining the 49ers.

CUTDOWN DATES

Aug. 15-60; Aug. 22-50; Aug. 28-43 (after which two may be added to reach the roster limit of 45).

CAMP DATES

July 15 — Rookies report; July 22 — Veterans report; Aug. 19 — Break camp at San Jose State and return to the Redwood City facility.

THE 1978 OUTLOOK

If any one word can sum up what the 49ers lacked in 1977 and must strive for in 1978, that word is consistency.

Consider:

- The 1977 49ers lost five straight to open the season and three straight to end it, winning five of six in between.
- •The 1977 49ers outgained their opponents, had more plays than their opponents, and had a 41 per cent efficiency on third down plays.
- The 1977 49ers held their opposition to 17 or fewer points on nine occasions. But the 49ers themselves scored 17 or fewer points in nine games. Los Angeles (two games), Pittsburgh and Dallas scored nearly half of the 260 points given up by the 49ers last year.
- The punting game at both ends hurt the 49ers. Three blocked punts and a 9.4 return average by opponents contributed to a 28.5 net punting average, the lowest in the league. At the same time, the 49ers' return average was just 6.1, which was 27th in the NFL.

The overall result was a 5-9 season.

So what did General Manager Joe Thomas do to make things better for 1978?

A lot.

Start with a new coach, Pete McCulley, with whom Thomas worked in Baltimore when the former was an assistant coach. McCulley brings a sound offensive mind and a belief in conditioning and fundamentals to San Francisco in his first head coaching job. His unique conditioning program and his positive outlook promises to have everyone's attention from the outset. With him comes a new staff — young, enthusiastic teachers with a good blend of professional and college coaching experience.

Add some new players: a notable veteran, running back O.J. Simpson, perhaps the best the NFL has seen, a man who stands to become the NFL's leading all-time rusher within a couple of seasons.

Add a number of youngsters: wide receivers Freddie Solomon, Larry Jones and Terry LeCount, the first two coming in trades, the latter in the draft. Exciting people, all of whom can help the football team as receivers and kick returners.

Add the 1978 draft: tight end Ken MacAfee, linebacker Dan Bunz and guards Walt Downing and Ernie Hughes, any or all of whom may be starting by opening day.

And put some of the load on some young shoulders, players with talent and youthful exhuberance who may make some mistakes, but full-speed mistakes nonetheless. The sacrifice will be experience for overall team speed.

Maintain the excellence of play of people like Gene Washington, Cleveland Elam and Cedrick Hardman; make Jim Plunkett a better quarterback by surrounding him with better people and allowing him to call his own plays.

The results, in terms of wins and losses, are yet to be seen.

But certainly Thomas and McCulley will put an exciting football team on the field, one which will get there in a hurry and make things happen. The hope is that most of the things that happen will be good.

OFFENSE

Quarterbacks

By surrounding him with talent, the 49ers hope that they have taken a giant step toward bringing JIM PLUNKETT back to the success that he enjoyed with the New England Patriots in his first five seasons in the NFL. Plunkett passed for over 9,300 yards and 59 touchdowns in those first four years, but has yet to enjoy that kind of happiness with the 49ers in his two years at helm of the offense. He will be calling his own plays in 1978, and with talented people like O.J. Simpson, Freddie Solomon, Larry Jones and Ken MacAfee and some new faces in the offensive line, things should improve for him. Veteran SCOTT BULL provides excellent backup help, having performed well on the occasions he's been given the duty. Youngster STEVE DEBERG has the tools and the potential to be a player to watch.

Running Backs

This is a good group. The acquisition of O.J. SIMPSON to pair with WILBUR JACKSON gives the 49ers as good a starting set of backs as there is in the league. Simpson needs just over 2,000 yards more in his career to become the NFL's leading all-time rusher, and with Jackson to block for him, it might not be long in coming. Not that Jackson can't run with the ball, himself. He has rushed for over 700 yards in three out of his four seasons in the league, and will also complement O.J. with his receiving and blocking ability. Behind Jackson at the fullback spot will be second-year man GREG BOYKIN, acquired in trade from New Orleans, and veteran BOBBY FERRELL, two of the top special teams players for the 49ers. Providing help at the running back spot will be veteran PAUL HOFER, second-year man DAVID WILLIAMS and draftee ELLIOTT WALKER.

Receivers and Tight Ends

Off-season activity has made this into perhaps the strongest position on the team, as trades and the draft brought some very talented people into the 49er fold. At wide receiver, steady GENE WASHINGTON will enter his tenth season with his burden eased considerably. FREDDIE SOLOMON and LARRY JONES, acquired in off-season trades, will give the 49ers speed and talent on the outside, hopefully enough to take away some of the double coverage attention Washington has faced for a number of seasons. Draftee TERRY LECOUNT is of the same mold, a potential game-breaker at all times. Veterans JIM LASH, WILLIE McGEE and KENNY HARRISON will all have a say in the end, and all have performed well in the past. 1977 draftee ELMO BOYD, who spent last season on the injured reserve list, will also be heard from. At tight end, veteran PAUL SEAL has impressed with his improvement since coming to the club at the outset of the 1977 season from New Orleans, but will be pushed immediately by draftee KEN MacAFEE. Each has the size, although MacAfee is considerably bigger, and the talents to provide the club with outstanding play from this spot.

Offensive Line

Youth will be a factor here, and the 49ers staff hopes that it will be a positive factor. Things appear to be set at the tackles, with veterans JEAN BARRETT (sixth year) and KEITH FAHNHORST (fifth year) entering into the prime of life for NFL offensive linemen. With third-year nan RANDY CROSS getting better all the time at center, the battles for the positions in between are going to command the most attention. A couple of second-year players, JOHN AYERS and JOHNNY MILLER, are the early leaders, but a pair of draftees, ERNIE HUGHES and WALT DOWNING, will make their presence felt before the dust settles. Veterans STEVE LAWSON and WOODY PEOPLES were the starters here last year. A number of recent acquisitions could also figure in the plans. At tackle, RON SINGLETON and KURT SCHUMACHER will battle for attention with Schumacher possessing the experience and Singleton the potential to fill the bill. Draftee STEVE MCDANIELS will command a look in camp because of his physical attributes (6-6, 276), if nothing else. Veteran STEVE KNUTSON and draftee FRED QUILLAN are looking for work at center, although Barrett and Downing each have put in some time at the position in the psst and could fill in, if needed.

DEFENSE

Defensive Line

A group which starts with CLEVELAND ELAM and CEDRICK HARDMAN on either side has got to be one of the strong points for any football team. Elam, who led the 49ers with 18½ sacks from the right tackle spot, will move outside to left end. His talents — he was an All-Pro selection last season and has gone to the Pro Bowl in each of the past two years — will doubtless make him effective there also. A former All-Pro himself, Hardman contributed 12½ sacks to the 49ers' total of 42 in a full season after coming off a 1976 injury. JIMMY WEBB, a first round draft choice in 1975, returns at left tackle while a former New York Jet ED GALIGHER will move into Elam's old spot at right tackle. Veterans TONY CLINE and BILL COOKE proved the backup help last season, but will be challenged this year by draftees ARCHIE REESE and WILLIE MCCRAY.

Linebackers

This group got immediately better with the drafting of DAN BUNZ and the acquisition of JOE HARRIS in trade with Washington. BRUCE ELIA can move out of the middle and back to his normal outside position where he will line up as the starter on the first day of camp, coupled with WILLIE HARPER on the other side. Veteran ED BRADLEY returns in the middle, but Bunz figures to force the issue there in a hurry. Harris, a special teams player supreme, will push for playing time on the outside, also. Second-year players MIKE BALDASSIN and HOWARD STIDHAM veteran SKIP VANDERBUNDT and draftee DEAN MOORE will battle for the backup roles.

Defensive Backs

The 49ers are counting on youthful exhuberance to offset the lack of experience here. This group accounted for only four interceptions in 1977, a figure which must increase this season. Veteran BRUCE TAYLOR enters his ninth season as the 49ers' starter at right corner back, and will be the only player here with more than two years in the NFL. Teams have stopped throwing to his side, a sign of the respect he commands. The 1977 starter at left corner, TONY LEONARD, will open camp as the number one man at that spot in his third NFL season. Second-year men STAN BLACK and VERN ROBERSON will be the early leaders at the strong safety and free safety spots, respectively. EDDIE LEWIS and MIKE BURNS provided backup help last year and will be pushing for some playing time. While draftees HERMAN REDDEN and BRUCE THREADGILL could figure in the plans, the most interesting new face may be that of free agent WONDER MONDS, a two-year Canadian Football Leaque veteran, who will threaten Black at strong safety. The overall speed and enthusiasm will hopefully make up for the lack of experience as the 49ers definitely need a better performance from this crew in 1978.

SPECIAL TEAMS

With an abundance of young, fast and aggressive football players and some new people getting into the act, this group can't help but improve on a dismal performance in 1977. New acquisitions FREDDIE SOLOMON and LARRY JONES, second-year man DAVID WILLIAMS and draftee TERRY LECOUNT will give the 49ers some talented return men from which to choose. Just when things were looking up, however, punter TOM WITTUM was severely injured in a traffic accident and will be lost for the season, leaving the 49ers scrambling. Draftee MIKE CONNELL and a free agent or two will be the only punters on hand at the outset of camp, but help may have to come from outside. Kicker RAY WERSCHING, who booted a 50-yard field goal in his first effort last year, will handle the kicking again, although Connell could come on to do the kickoff duties.

Joined 49ers: No. 2b prior to the 1972 season.

PRO: Has started every game at left tackle for the 49ers for the past two seasons ("The position that takes all the heat in the pass rush," according to Pete McCulley). Played every position in the offensive line in his first three seasons with the 49ers. His flexibility — he can also make the long snap — makes him a valuable commodity to the team. He spent the 1972 season as a member of the 49ers taxi squad.

COLLEGE: Started three years at Tulsa, finished his career as an All-Conference choice and played in The Blue-Gray Game, the Coaches' All-America Game and The College All-Star game after his senior year. Was the biggest player on the Tulsa squad in his senior season.

PERSONAL: Born in Ft. Worth, Tex., but graduated from W.T. White HS in Dallas. Was the first football player ever to receive an athletic scholarship from that school. Has younger brother and sister. Is married, and he and wife, Jane, are parents of a son, John Carl (9/19/73). Lives in Tulsa in the off-season where he is involved in the construction business.

Games: 1973 (14), 1974 (14), 1975 (9), 1976 (14), 1977 (14). Additional pro statistics: Recovered one fumble, 1973 and 1974.

PRO: Although injuries threw him into a starting role at the end of the 1977 season, Stan is expected to compete for that role on his own this year. Has all the tools needed to make it, including 4.6 speed in the 40. Made a strong showing on the special teams last year.

COLLEGE: Earned four letters as a defensive back and wide receiver at Mississippi State. Was a unanimous All-Southeast Conference choice, first team NEA, second team UPI and pre-season Playboy All-American as a senior. Played in the North-South and East-West games as well as the Hula Bowl and the Japan Bowl.

PERSONAL: Graduated from Heritage Academy (prep school) in his hometown of Columbus, Mississippi. He was an all-state selection in football and basketball and all-conference in baseball while earning seven letters.

PRO: Has all the qualities sought in an NFL quarterback: size, speed, a strong arm, intelligence and a good football attitude. Played well as a rookie in relief of Jim Plunkett, but in 1977 played in only six games and threw just 24 passes, mostly in lost causes. Is expected to get the one thing he needs most in the coming season: playing time.

COLLEGE: Took over as startir.g quarterback in Arkansas' wishbone offense as a senior and led the Razorbacks to the SWC championship and a win in the Cotton Bowl. A good athlete, he played fullback, tight end, and strong safety as well as quarterback as a sophomore. Also was a pitcher on the baseball team. Marketing major.

PERSONAL: Born in Camden, Ark. Competed in football, baseball and track in high school and was named Arkansas prep Athlete of the Year in 1971. Very active in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. Married, wife's name is Becky. Avid hunter and fisherman. Studied real estate and worked in the field on a part-time basis in the off-season.

PRO: After starting most of the season last year at middle linebacker, Elia is expected to make the switch back to the outside, his best position, and compete for a starting spot in 1978. He called 1977 a learning experience for him, as it was his first season playing fulltime. He was originally a fourth round draft choice for Miami in 1975 and played 12 games in a reserve role for the Dolphins. Went to Tampa Bay in the

Had problems holding his weight previously, but surgery after the 1976 season seems to have taken care of that. Has played tight end, his college position, on occasion for the 49ers.

COLLEGE: Was regular tight end at Minnesota for three years, but, in the Gophers' run-oriented offense, caught only 28 passes for 416 yards and one TD during the three seasons. Was the leading receiver on the team as a senior with 10 catches. A devastating blocker, he made All-Big 10 as a senior and played in the East-West Shrine Game and the Senior Bowl.

PERSONAL: Born in St. Cloud, Minn. Went to St. Cloud Tech and earned three varsity letters as a tight end-linebacker, two as a basketball center and three as a discus man in track. Has all the tools: speed, agility and quickness. "Physically, he's as much a man as I've ever laid eyes on," says Pete McCulley. Missed the final three games of the 1976 season and was slowed early in the 1977 season with a broken angle and subsequent rehabilitation. Was an All-Pro selection in 1975, and played in the Pro Bowl following the 1971 and 1975 seasons. COLLEGE: Late-blooming college performer who finally settled at defensive end as a senior and turned in a sensational final year. Originally reported to North Texas State as a 5-11, 185-pound freshman, worked at both offensive and defensive back. By his junior year, however, he weighed 240, stood 6-3 and became an immediately successful defensive lineman. As a senior, he was All-MVC, played in both Blue-Gray and Senior Bowl games, in each of which he was selected the outstanding defensive player.

No. 40 WILBUR JACKSON

					NFL	Off-Season
Pos	Born	Ht	Wt	College	Exp	Residence
RB	11/19/51	6-1	219	Alabama	5	Ozark, Ala.

Joined 49ers: No. 1a (1b was Bill Sandifer) prior to the 1974 season.

Pro: Will team with O.J. Simpson from the fullback position to give the 49ers as good a tandem as anyone in the NFL. A complete football player, Jackson is an outstanding runner (792 and 780 yards the past two seasons and 2,580 in four years), blocker (Delvin Williams rushed for over 2,100 yards in the past two seasons with Jackson as his running mate) and receiver (56 catches in 1976 and 1977), A strong runner who gets most of his yards inside. After being the 49ers' first selection in the 1974 draft, Jackson had 705 yards rushing in his rookie season and was named NFC Rookie of the Year by the Sporting News. Leading the club in rushing, he was the first rookie to do so since Ken Willard had done it in 1965. After a slow start in 1977, he came on strong, finishing with two 100-plus rushing games in the second half of the season. He rushed 16 times for 190 yards and two touchdowns, one on an 80-yard gallop, against New Orleans on Nov. 27, his best day as a professional. His other 100-yard game came against the Saints on Nov. 13, when he carried 22 times for 123 yards.

COLLEGE: At Alabama, despite the fact the team rotated its backfield units, Jackson amassed a 3-year total of 1,537 yards on just 212 carries for a brilliant 7.2-yds. per carry average, scored 17 TDs. Was a member of Alabama's Orange (1972), Cotton (1973) and Sugar (1974) Bowl teams (the Tide was 32-1 during his tenure there), as well as the Senior Bowl in 1975. Injured in the Coaches All-America Game.

PERSONAL: Born in Ozark, Ala., graduated from Carroll High School there where he earned two letters as a wide receiver, three as a basketball forward and two as a baseball outfielder. Not married. Has one brother, two sisters. Family still lives in Ozark.

Joined 49ers: In a trade with Washington prior to the 1978 season (TE Tom Mitchell).

PRO: Will be trying to regain the form that made him a record-setting kick returner with the Redskins three years ago. Played in all 14 games in 1977 after missing all of 1976 with torn ankle ligaments. In 1975, established a NFL record with 100 combined kick returns (53 punt returns and 47 kickoff returns, each of which tied league records). Also tied a mark with 12 combined kick returns against Dallas that season.

Was drafted by the New York Giants in 1974, but waived and subsequently signed as a free agent by the Redskins prior to the 1974 season.

COLLEGE: In his senior season at Northeast Missouri State, caught 22 passes for 499 yard, averaged 26.9 on 22 kickoff returns, and 13.8 on 17 punt returns. Majored in physical education.

PERSONAL: Larry and his wife, Carolyn, have a daughter, Darendolyn, 7.

Joined 49ers: In a trade (Sammy Johnson) from Minnesota after six games of the 1976 season.

PRO: A former starter for the Vikings during their Super Bowl years in 1974 and 1975, Jim came to the 49ers midway through the 1976 season and started the last seven games. Limited to a reserve role in 1977, he will be in battle for a soot with the 49ers beefed-up corps of receivers in 1978. Considered one of the best blocking wide receivers in the NFL. Was a third round draft choice for the Vikings in 1973.

COLLEGE: Second-leading receiver in Northwestern history. Was All-Big Ten as a senior. Set a conference record that year with 226 yards on nine receptions against Michigan. Played in the East-West Shrine Game and the Hula Bowl.

PERSONAL: Born in Akron, Ohio and still lives there. Attended Akron Garfield HS. Single.

Joined 49ers: In a trade from Minnesota (Windlan Hall) prior to the 1976 season.

PRO: After coming to the 49ers in trade in the 1976 pre-season, Steve stepped in and started all 14 games that year, and was a part-time starter in 1977. He is expected to compete for a starting role again in 1978. A second round draft choice of Cincinnati in 1971, he was a starter as a rookie for the Bengals. He was traded to Minnesota in 1973.

starting a number of games for the Vikings in 1974.

COLLEGE: Standout lineman at Kansas University. Earned All-America honors after his senior season. Has a degree in education and social studies.

PERSONAL: Born in Atlanta, Ga., but attended Mt. Carmel HS in Chicago, Ill. Lives in Kansas City, Mo. during the off-season. Married, he and his wife, Linda, have a son, Greg, and a daughter, Christina. Steve is a substitute teacher at the secondary level during the off-season. Hobby is collecting antiques.

CB	2/8/53	5-11	170	Virginia Union	3	Richmond, Vir.

Joined 49ers: No. 5 prior to the 1976 season.

PRO: Started at cornerback for the 49ers most of 1977. A good athlete, Leonard gets the job done despite a lack of size, with his 4.5 speed providing much of the reason. ("He's like a spider out there, covering those receivers," says Pete McCulley). Has handled the bulk of the 49ers punt return work the past two seasons, with occasional kickoff return duty. His top kick return last season was his only kickoff return, a 68-yard effort at Minnesota. He holds the 49ers record for most punt return yardage in a game, 141 against New Orleans in 1976, including a 60-yard touchdown return. His nine returns in that ame tied the club mark.

COLLEGE: Four-year letterman as a defensive back at Virginia Union. Led the team in interceptions for three years as well as leading the team in kickoff and punt returns. Named to the AP College Division All-America team after his senior season and selected 1st team Black All-America by the Mutual Black Network.

PERSONAL: Born in Richmond, Va. and still lives there. Youngest of three brothers and two sisters. Single.

Joined 49ers: No. 2b (Randy Cross was 2a) prior to the 1976 season.

PRO: Started the final game of 1977 at free safety for the injured Ralph McGill. Can play any of the defensive backfield spots, although cornerback is his best position. Will compete for a starting role this fall after impressing the coaches in off-season camps with his speed, size and attitude. One of the fastest men on the squad, he also excels on the special teams.

COLLEGE: Three year starter at cornerback for Kansas after playing wide receiver as a freshman. Also returned kickoffs and punts for the Jayhawks. As a sophomore he earned All-America status in track as a member of Kansas' 440-yard relay team that captured the NCAA crown. As a sprinter had bests of 9.6 in the 100-yard dsah, 21.3 in the 220, and 46.0 in the 440. Was a teammte of 49er running back Delvin Williams while at Kansas. Joined 49ers: No. 14 prior to the 1976 season.

PRO: After spending the 1976 season on the 49ers' injured reserve list, Miller came back last year to get valuable playing experience in a reserve role. Will be a strong contender for a starting role at guard, although he can play just about any position in the offensive line. One of the strongest players on the team and has taken to Pete McCulley's conditioning and strength programs as well as anyone. His quickness, strength and speed will give him a jump on becoming an outstanding player; all he needs is more playing experience on offense.

COLLEGE: Played nose guard for Livingstone, where he was co-captain of the team and also an all-conference selection in both of those years. Was a first team Black All-America choice after his senior season.

No. 16 JIM PLUNKETT

					NFL	Off-Season
Pos	Born	Ht	Wt	College	Exp	Residence
QB	12/5/47	6-2	219	Stanford	8	Palo Alto, Cal.

Joined 49ers: Trade (Tom Owen and draft choices) from New England prior to the 1976 season.

PRO: "I feel comfortable with Jim Plunkett as our quarterback," said Coach Pete McCulley. "He's worked as hard (in the off-season) as any quarterback I've been around. He's in great condition and he will be well-prepared." With that, McCulley let it be known just who was his man. The third Stanford quarterback (others were Frankie Albert and John Brodie) and one of four Heisman Trophy winners to play for the 49ers (along with John David Crow, Steve Spurrier and O.J. Simpson). Plunkett hit on 128 of 248 passes for 1,693 yards and nine touchdowns in 1977 in the face of the 49ers 5-9 season. With the addition of "gamebreakers" such as Freddie Soloman, Larry Jones and Terry LeCount to his wide receiver corps, Ken MacAfee at tight end and O.J. Simpson in the backfield, the 49ers hope to take some of the pressure off the passing game and make Plunkett that much more effective. Passed for more than 2,000 yards in each of his first four pro seasons with New England, and there is no reason that a healthy Jim Plunkett can't be just as effective in San Francisco. First player taken in the 1971 draft, he stepped right in as the starting quarterback for the Patriots and won Rookie of the Year honors from The Sporting News, Pro Football Weekly, NEA, UPI and AP. Threw 19 touchdown passes in his first season, second highest total ever for a rookie. Started every game his first four seasons for the Patriots before an injury slowed him in 1975.

COLLEGE: Capped a fabulous college career by winning the Heisman Trophy and the Maxwell Award in 1970. A unanimous All-America selection. Made an auspicious debut as a sophomore in 1968 by completing 10 of 13 passes for 277 yards and four Tds. Finished up his sophomore year with 2,156 yards passing, more than any other player in the history of the Pac-8 Conference. Shattered more Pac-8 records the following two seasons and ended up his varsity career with three-year totals of 530 completions in 962 attempts for 7,544 yards and 52 TDs. Still holds a number of Pac-8 and NCAA records. Was the hero of Stanford's sensational upset win (27-17) over Ohio State in the 1971 Rose Bowl. Played in the Hula Bowl, Coaches' All-America Game, and the College All-Star Game. As a sophomore at Stanford, Plunkett's favorite receiver was Gene Washington, then a senior, who caught 71 passes.

PERSONAL: Born in San Jose, Cal. Attended Overfeldt and James Lick high schools there. Starred in five sports — Football, basketball, baseball, track and wrestling. Plays a lot of tennis in the off-season. Single.

Joined 49ers: In a trade with Miami prior to the 1978 season (with Freddie Solomon and two draft choices for Delvin Williams).

PRO: Started eight games for the Dolphins last year in his rookie season, despite being slowed by a sprained ankle. Named to the UPI All Rookie team at free safety. Originally drafted by the Dolphins in the 1974 supplementary draft after deciding to pass up his senior season at Grambling to support his family. He was in the last cut that year, and went to Calgary to play in the Canadian Football League in 1975. Had 10 interceptions and also returned 19 punts for 115 yards for the Stampeders. Had three interceptions and was in on 31 tackles in four games for Ottawa in 1976 before missing the rest of the season with injuries and personal problems. Re-signed with the Dolphins as a free agent in 1977. Has a 4.4. clocking in the 40 to his credit.

COLLEGE: Played defensive back as a freshman and flanker as a sophomore and junior at Grambling. Chose to forego his senior year of eligibility to support his family.

PERSONAL: Born and raised in Natchitoches, Louisiana, as one of 16 brothers and sisters. He and his wife, Virginia, live in Natchitoches, with their two daughters, Alecia (5) and Tuguita (2).

Joined 49ers: In a trade (John Watson) from New Orleans prior to the 1977 season.

PRO: Joined the 49ers at the outset of the 1977 season and saw action in 14 games, contributing 13 catches for 230 yards and one touchdown. Has added weight, and the coaches have been impressed with his work during the off-season. He should be vastly improved in 1978. Has not missed a game in his four years in the NFL. Originally a second round draft choice for New Orleans, he started for the Saints for two years, making the All-Rookie team in 1974.

COLLEGE: Outstanding career at Michigan, with 33 catches for 510 yards and six touchdowns for a run-oriented team. Co-captain in his senior year, he was named to first team All-Big Ten and second team All-America. Played in the East-West game, the Hula Bowl and the Coaches All America game.

PERSONAL: Born in Detroit, Michigan, where he is a substitute teacher in the off-season, Attended Pershing High School, where he was an all-state selection in football, basketball, track and golf. Paul and his wife, Karen, have a young son, Paul Nathan Seal II, born 12-8-77. DUIGUUNG Joined 49ers: In a trade with Buffalo on March 24, 1978 (five draft choices).

PRO: The National Football League's second leading rusher of all time, holder of seven NFL Records, including 2,003 yards in a single season (1973) he returns home in what General Manager Joe Thomas calls ... the most explosive trade I've ever been involved in." His 10,183 yards rushing in his career is second only to the great Jim Brown's 12,312, a total within O.J.'s reach if he stays healthy for the next two seasons. Played in only seven games for Buffalo in 1977 before undergoing knee surgery for removal of cartilage in his left knee and missing the rest of the season. Pronounced 100 per cent fit by doctors, he looks forward in 1978 to regaining the form that had made him the NFL rushing champion every season, O.J. three times, Brown three times and Walter Payton once. Payton broke O.J.'s single game rushing mark of 273 yards on 29 carries by rushing for 275 yards on 40 carries against Minnesota in 1977. That was a measure of revenge of sorts for Payton, who lost the NFL rushing title on the last day of the season in 1976 to Simpson when The Juice rushed for 171 yards against Baltimore. O.J. has rushed for more than 200 yards in a single game on six occasions (all-time NFL leader), including twice in back-to-back efforts in 1973 and again in 1976. He has 41 100-yard games in his career, second only to Brown's 58. He set an NFL record by scoring 23 touchdowns in 1975, and tied another by getting at least one TD in every game that season, including a 4-TD performance against New England. In his record-breaking season of 1973, he was the overwhelming winner of the following: Most Valuable Player of the NFL by AP and UPI, the Hickok Belt as Outstanding Pro Athlete of the Year, AP's Male Athlete of the Year, the Bert Bell Award from the Maxwell Club and the Dunlop Pro-Am prize as the pro athlete of the year. He missed the Pro Bowl in following the 1977 season for the first time in six years. He was MVP in the 1973 contest with 112 yards in 19 carries. A consensus All-Pro and All-AFC selection for five years in a row (1972-1976). Everyone's Player of the Year in 1973, also receiving the honor from many sources in 1975. The first player taken in the 1969 draft, he averaged 161 carries and 642 yards in each of his first three seasons. Including an abbreviated 1977, he has averaged 273 carries and 1,376 yards per season in the last six years. As a Buffalo Bill, he had only played against the 49ers in one game, carrying the ball 29 times for 138 yards in a 27-20 Buffalo win in 1972 at Orchard Park.

COLLEGE: College Athlete of the Decade, Heisman Trophy winner, two-time All-American, he broke 13 Southern California records in a two-year blitz as a Trojan. Gained 3,423 yards on 674 carries, leading the NCAA in rushing both years. Led the Trojans to two straight Rose Bowl appearances. Also a sprinter for the USC track team, he was a member of the world record-setting 440-yard relay team (38.6) in 1967. Rushed for 2,445 yards on 259 carries and was a two-time JC All-American at San Francisco City College before transferring to USC.

PERSONAL: Given name is Orenthal James. Recently signed a five-year contract with the National Broadcasting Company (NBC) for sportscasting and dramatics. In previous work with ABC, covered the 1976 Olympics in Montreal, did several segments of Wide World of Sports and also covered a number of college football all-star games. Finished filming his sixth major motion picture in the off-season, "Firepower," where he stars with Sophia Loren. Current release is "Capricorn One," where he stars with James Brolin, Elliott Gould, Hal Holbrook, Karen Black and Brenda Vaccaro. Previous efforts include "The Cassandra Crossing" with Sophia Loren, Burt Lancaster and Richard Harris; "Killer Force" with Telly Savalas and Peter Fonda; "The Klansman" with Richard Burton and Lee Marvin; and "The Towering Inferno." Won the Superstars competition and $54,000 in prize money in 1975, but has not competed since. Is a constant inclusion on lists of America's most watchable men and best-dressed men; was number one in a Ladies Home Journal Poll of fifth graders in 1976 among the students' top 50 heroes. Advertising spokesman for Hertz, Spotbuilt shoes, Treesweet Products and Dingo Boots. Is past chairman of the New York State Cancer Crusade and is also active on national committee for the cause. Born and raised in San Francisco, he has a brother and two sisters and his mother and father still live in The City. Second cousin of former Chicago Cubs baseball star Ernie Banks. Makes his off-season home in Los Angeles with wife, Marquerite, and their three children: daughters Arnelle and Aaren (born 9/24/77) and son Jason. Hobbies: collecting antique cars, listening to music, playing cards and tennis and reading.

They said it .....

O.J. Simpson:

"Home at last, thank God Almighty, I'm home at last. I'm going to make this the best trade Joe Thomas ever made."

"I used to scalp tickets outside Kezar Stadium .... we had it down pat. You'd beg some guy to sell you his spare ticket cheap. When he asked you how much you had, you would reach down into your pocket and come out with a dollar bill — I kept the fives in my sock. Then we'd go sell the tickets for as much as we could get and pay 50 cents to get into that Christopher Milk section ourselves. When the guards turned their backs, we'd jump the fence and take a better seat. I ate in the cafeteria at school because of the 49ers."

"I've got plenty of good football left in me. I intend to play another couple of years and then reevaluate. I might play three more years here. As far as my knee is concerned, I had the cartilage removed and the doctors expect no problem with that at all. It's not like ligament surgery, where you need a lot of rehabilitation and there are a lot of questions."

"I used to say that only bad football players got hurt .... now I say 'it's a violent game.""

"I had some good years in Buffalo, but hopefully I can get here what I couldn't get there and that is a championship."

(On Joe Thomas): "When I was with Buffalo, I played against two teams he built, Miami and Baltimore. I seem to remember he was criticized by a lot of people at the time, but I also seem to remember those teams playing some great football. I'm looking forward to him building something like that here."

Joe Thomas:

"This is the most explosive trade I've ever been involved in. O.J. is more than a football player, to me he's the hottest item in sports today. O.J.'s charisma cuts across generations — he reaches old people, young people, all people. He's the most visible person in the United States outside of the President and perhaps Ali."

"We hope that the people of the Bay Area understand that we are trying to run a first class football operation. We are going to try to get the best people we possibly can get. Right there, in that man, that's it. There is nothing else we can do ever, as long as we're here, to come up with an item as hot as that."

Pete McCulley:

"What could i say about O.J. that hasn't already been said? We've got to get him the ball a whole bunch of times."

No. 67 RON SINGLETON

					NFL	Off-Season
Pos	Born	Ht	Wt	College	Exp	Residence
OT	4/15/52	6-7	275	Grambling	2	Metairie, La.

Joined 49ers: Claimed on waivers from San Diego in 1977.

PRO: Came to the 49ers late in the 1977 season to give some backup help after injuries thinned the ranks. Originally drafted as a tight end in the fourth round by San Diego in 1976, the Chargers made him into an offensive tackle when he added weight and strength. Saw action in one game for the 49ers. His speed (5.0 in the 40) and strength (over 400 pounds in the bench press) give him some basic tools, and the coaching staff hopes that by settling into one position he can come on to compete for a job.

COLLEGE: A tight end at Grambling, he was named to the All-Southwestern Athletic Conference team and also to the Black All-America team. His degree is in special education.

PERSONAL: Assistant manager and salesman for a furniture company in Metairie, Louisiana, in the off-season. He and his wife, Janice, have one son, Ryan Kurt.

Games: 1976 (13), 1977 (1).

No. 88 FREDDIE SOLOMON

					NFL	Off-Season
Pos	Born	Ht	Wt	College	Exp	Residence
WR	1/11/53	5-11	181	Tampa	4	Miami Lakes, Fla.

Joined 49ers: In a trade prior to the 1978 season (With Vern Roberson and two draft choices for Delvin Williams).

PRO: The gamebreaker — the big play guy with the ability to go all the way at any time. Gives the 49ers something they really have needed in the wide receiver corps, taking a lot of the weight off Gene Washington. Although slowed by a bruised right knee last year with the Dolphins, Solomon will be at full speed in 1978. Had 12 catches for 181 yards and one touchdown for Miami, and also commands attention as a punt returner as the Dolphin career record holder with an 11.4 average on 71 returns. Had a 90-yard kickoff return against Baltimore in 1977, and 254 total yards (kickoff returns, punt returns, receiving and rushing). Had a 252-yard day against Buffalo in 1976, including a 79-yard punt return, a 53-yard reception and a 59-yard flanker reverse, all for touchdowns. His first reception as a pro was for a 58-yard touchdown against Green Bay. Has clocked 4.4 in the 40, with some watches giving him 4.3. Originally a second round draft choice, the 36th player taken in the 1975 college draft. Great speed, hands and acceleration, he will also be used as a kick returner for the 49ers.

COLLEGE: Played quarterback for the University of Tampa for four years, rushing for 39 touchdowns and passing for 11. Had 17 games with more than 100 yards rushing. In his career, he compiled 3.299 yards on 557 carries and connected on 188 of 436 passes for 2,504 yards.

PERSONAL: Born and raised in Sumter, South Carolina. Married in May of 1978, wife's name is Delilah.

No. 58 HOWARD STIDHAM

					NFL	Off-Season
Pos.	Born	Ht	Wt	College	Exp	Residence
LB	12/17/54	6-2	225	Tennessee Tech	2	Cookeville, Tenn.

DECEIVING

Joined 49ers: As a free agent during the 1977 season.

PRO: Originally a 15th round draft choice of the 49ers in 1976, Stidham rejoined the club as a free agent late in the 1977 season and saw action in four games in relief roles. His contributions in 1978 would be expected to be along the same lines, with his special teams abilities strong points in his favor.

COLLEGE: Led Tennessee Tech in solo tackles his junior and senior years, serving the final season as a captain of the team. Only one other 49er has come out of Tennessee Tech (Larry Schreiber).

PERSONAL: Attended North Hardin High School in Radcliff, Kentucky, where he played football and basketball. Worked for an electric company in the off-season. Lists softball as a hobby. Single.

Games: 1977 (4).

No. 44 BRUCE TAYLOR

Pos	Born	Ht	Wt	College	Exp	Residence
					NFL	Off-Season

Joined 49ers: No. 1b prior to the 1970 season (1a was Cedrick Hardman).

PRO: Bruce Taylor's role takes on added significance this season as he will be the only member of the 49ers secondary with more than one year of experience in the National Football League. An outstanding athlete who is fully recovered from a series of nagging injuries suffered over the past few years, he has looked very good in off-season camps and should be ready for another outsanting season. The fact that quarterbacks are not throwing his direction becomes evident in view of his interception totals for the past two years: zero. Led the NFL in punt returning in 1973 and his career totals for number of returns and yards are both 49er team records. Was NFC Defensive Rookie of the Year in 1970 and started at cornerback for the NFC in the Pro Bowl following the 1971 season. Also holds the 49er record for most punt return yardage in a single season, 516 yds. in 1970. Has returned two missed FG attempts for TDs, both against the same team, New Orleans, 92 yds. in 1970 and 55 yds. in 1971.

COLLEGE: Earned three football letters at Boston University, was MVP and All America as a senior. Played in East-West Game. Also was considered major league prospect in baseball as an outfielder. Earned one track letter as a sprinter. As a senior led team in scoring (six TDs) despite playing only one down on offense (a 48-yard end around for a TD). Has a 104-yard punt return TD. Majored in history.

PERSONAL: Perth Amboy, N.J., where he attended Perth Amboy HS, earned three football letters, three in basketball, four in baseball. Married, wife's name is Terry. His brother Brian is a former National Basketball Association player. Bruce, who works for a savings and loan association during the off-season, is very active in the Sickle Cell Anemia Research Foundation and has served as chairman of one of the Foundation's divisions in Northern California.

					NFL	Off-Season
Pos	Born	Ht	Wt	College	Exp	Residence
LB	12/4/46	6-3	222	Oregon State	10	Sacramento, Cal.

Joined 49ers: No. 3b (Lance Olssen was 3a) prior to the 1968 season.
Activated in 1969.

PRO: Has started every game for the 49ers during the past three seasons, and is looked upon to compete for that spot again in 1978. Has has 14 interceptions in nine previous seasons. Was drafted in the third round by the 49ers in 1968, but spent that season on the taxi squad.

Had three returns for touchdowns in 1973, two on interceptions and one on a fumble.

COLLEGE: Earned three football letters at Oregon State where his checkered career saw him play QB, FB, and LB. As a senior LB was named All-Conference and honorable mention All-America, played in East-West Game, Hula Bowl and Coaches' All-America Game. Also earned two baseball letters at OSU. Majored in social science and education.

PERSONAL: Born in Martinez, Calif., but attended El Dorado HS in Placerville. Married and he and wife, Judy, are parents of two daughters, Whitney Lee (4/16/71) and Piper Christine (1/26/74). Skip owns and operates a landscapting company in Sacramento in the off-season. Judy is in the real estate business in Sacramento.

No. 18 GENE WASHINGTON

Pos	Born	Ht	Wt	Collee	Exp	Residence
					NFL	Off-Season

Joined 49ers: No. 1b prior to the 1969 season (1a was Ted Kwalick).

PRO: "Everything you want in a wide receiver," says Pete McCulley. "He's smooth, fast, catches the ball well and makes the big play." In 1977, Washington led the 49ers in receiving, something he has done for each of the past three years and six of his nine seasons in the NFL. Continued to draw double coverage in 1977, but hopefully that burden will be eased somewhat in 1978 with the addition of Freddie Solomon and Larry Jones. He is already the 49ers' career leader in touchdown receptions (59) and reception yardage (6,624), and his 371 catches puts him within reach of the club record of 407 held by Billy Wilson. His 371 career receptions ransk third among active NFC receivers (behind Harold Jackson's 415 and John Gilliam's 382). Has been All-Pro and a Pro Bowl starter four times.

COLLEGE: As a Stanford senior he set single-season records for number of catches (71), yards, and TDs (8), with all of the passes coming from quarterback Jim Plunkett. His three year totals were 122 catches (a school careeer record), 1,785 yds. (a school career record) and 10 TDs. Began his career as a QB, but suffered a shoulder injury his sophomore year and asked to be switched to receiver. Led Pacific Eight Conference in pass receiving as a junior and was unanimous All-Conference. Outstanding offensive player in the East-West Shrine Game, played in Hula Bowl, Senior Bowl and College All-Star Game.

PERSONAL: Born in Tuscaloosa, Ala., but grew up in Long Beach, Calif. Has three brothers, one sister. Graduated from Long Beach Poly, where he played baseball and basketball in addition to football. Married, wife's name is Cynthia. They are parents of a daughter, Tiffany, 4. Gene has had roles in several movies and has done work on fund drives for sickle cell anemia. Hie is past chairman of the annual March of Dimes pro athlete decathlon and of San Francisco's Special Olympics for handicapped children.

No. 74 JIMMY WEBB

					NFL	Off-Season
Pos	Born	Ht	Wt	College	Exp	Residence
DT	4/13/52	6-4	247	Mississippi State	4	Brandon, Miss.

Joined 49ers: No. 1 prior to the 1975 season.

PRO: Has started every game for the past two seasons, contributing 7½ sacks to the 49ers total in 1976 and 1½ sacks in 1977. "He is a real 100 per-center, hustling all the time — a good team man," says Pete McCulley. Is counted on to start again, teaming with Ed Galigher in the inside. A former number one draft choice in 1975, Webb's playing time was limited to a reserve role that season, with a starting spot in the final game. Will provide the kind of play which will help keep this a strong position for the club.

COLLEGE: Outstanding career at Mississippi State where he played both defensive tackle and end. Played in the Senior Bowl and College All-Star game. All-America after his senior year.

PERSONAL: Born in Jackson, Miss. but grew up and went to school in Florence, Miss. where his family owns a dairy farm. Earned three varsity letters at Florence HS while playing defensive end, defensive tackle, linebacker, offensive tackle, and center. Gained All-State and MVP honors after his senior year. Also won two letters in basketball. Father, Hurst Webb, also played football at Mississippi State. Has three brothers. Attending veterinary school at Mississippi State University in the off-season. He and his wife, Cindy, are the parents of twin boys, Micah and Joshua, born Nov. 6, 1977.

Games: 1975 (14), 1976 (14), 1977 (14).

Additional pro statistics: Recovered two fumbles, 1975 and 1976; recovered one fumble, 1977.

K	8/21/50	5-11	210	California	6	Solana Beach

Joined 49ers: As a free agent prior to the 5th game of the 1977 season.

PRO: In his first appearance on the field for the 4934s in 1977, Wersching kicked a 50-yard field goal against the New York Giants, a career high in five years in the National Football League. Provided the 49ers with some badly-needed help for the final ten games. Hit on ten of 17 field goals, including a perfect 5-for-5 between the 30 and the 40. His field goals provided the winning margins twice against New Orleans. Was third in the NFC in length of attempt (39.1) and second in length of average successful kick (38.1). Had a tryout with Atlanta in 1971 and joined the Chargers in 1973 as a free agent, handling their kicking chores for most of the next four seasons. Kicked four field goals in a single game in 1975.

COLLEGE: Outstanding career as the placekicker at California. Attended Cerritos Junior College before transferring to al. Has a degree in accounting.

PERSONAL: Born in Mondsee, Austria, but his family moved to Los Angeles when he was two years old. Attended Warren HS in Downey, Cal. Married, wife's name is Diane.

Pos	Born	Ht	Wt	College	Exp	Residence
HB	3/10/54	6-2	200	Colorado	2	Boulder, Colo.

Joined 49ers: Claimed on waivers from Dallas, 1977.

PRO: A seventh rough draft choice for the Cowboys in 1976, David spent that season in the Canadian Football League. When the Cowboys waived him prior to the '77 season, the 49ers grabbed him. An outstanding, intelligent athlete, he made himself a spot on the team with excellent special teams play last year, including a 60-yard effort on his only punt return and an 80-yard touchdown run with a kickoff return. Now that he has settled in at one position, the coaches look for him to make even more significant contributions in 1978.

COLLEGE: An option quarterback at Colorado, he holds the Buffalo record with 3,576 yards in 612 plays in his career. He was the Most Valuable Player in his senior season at CU and a two-time All-Academic Big Eight choice. Turned in a 9.7 clocking in the 100 in track.

PERSONAL: Born in Minden, Louisiana, he had more than 3,000 yards total offense in his junior and senior years combined, and was a prep All-American selection from Homer High School. RUSHING

KICKOFF RETURNS

Joined 49ers: No. 8 prior to the 1972 season.

NOTE: Tom will miss the 1978 season after a serious accident involving his pickup truck and a gravel truck in Libertyville, Illinois, on June 12. He suffered a compound fracture of the left leg, a broken right arm and severe lacerations.

PRO: Led the NFC in putting in 1973 with a 43.7 average and was second in 1974 and 1975. Placed in Pro Bowl following '73 and '74 seasons. Staff hopes that he can return to form following two offyears. His lifetime average is 40.8 on 380 kicks. A key to his performance will be shoring up the special teams play around him, as he has had eight punts blocked in the last three seasons. Spent 1972 on the San Francisco taxi squad.

COLLEGE: Handled all of the kicking chores for Northern Illinois during his three-year varsity career. Over that period he punted 221 times for an average of 40.4 yards. In his senior year alone, he punted 74 times for 2,977 yards and a 40.2 average. In one game he unted 11 times, in three others nine times. Over the three-year period he attempted 37 field goals, made 21, converted 50 of 56 extra points attempts. Four-letterman in baseball, three in football.

PERSONAL: Born in Berwyn, Ill., but grew up and went to high school in Round Lake, Ill., where he earned three letters in baseball, two in basketball, and two in football at Roundlake HS. An outstanding third baseman, he was offered a contract by the Chicago White Sox after high school. Graduated cum laude from Northern Illinois. Teaches school and coaches the high school baseball team in Grayslake, III. during the off-season. Married, wife's name is Susan.

Called the "key to the 49er draft" in 1978, this young man has it all: size, agility, good hands and good running ability (4.9 in the 40) . . . He caught 54 passes for 797 yards in his senior season for Notre Dame's national champions . . . Named winner of the Walter Camp Award as the top college football player . . . A consensus All American, he was chosen for the Walter Camp Foundation, the American Football Coaches Association, AP and UPI All-America teams . . . One of four finalists for the Lombardi Trophy . . . Holds all records for receiving for a tight end at Notre Dame . . . Led the Irish in receiving as a junior as well, with 34 catches for 482 yards . . . Career stats read 128 receptions for 1,758 yards and 15 touchdowns . . . A pre-dental major, he has been accepted into a special extended program at the University of Pennsylvania Dental school . . . A native of Brockton, Massachusetts, he earned ten letters in high school in football, basketball, track and golf . . . Was an All American as both a junior and a senior, catching ten touchdown passes each season . . . His father, Ken Sr., was a standout end at Alabama and later for the New York Giants in the NFL from 1954 through 1958 . . An accomplished pianist and artist . . "Art keeps the fingers loose and agile. It's just a matter of coordinating my eyes with my hands" . . . He contributed eight photographs for the "Athlete as Artist" exhibition in New York, a benefit for the Gaucho Basketball Fund, a charity that is raising money to build a year-round athletic facility in Harlem . . . Ken donated all the proceeds from his sales to the fund. . . .

Although he was the second linebacker to go in the first round (the first was USC's Clay Matthews to Cleveland), the 49ers had him rated as the best . . . Great strength (bench presses over 400 lbs.), correct size, the ability to go from sideline to sideline in a hurry and great football attitude are his strong points . . . Participated in 448 tackles in three years for the collegiate 49ers, including 72 unassisted and 99 assists as a senior . . . Also had two sacks, a blocked punt, a blocked PAT, an interception, a fumble recovery and a pass deflection... Honorable mention on several All-America teams, he was a first team selection for the AP and UPI All-Coast teams, and was an All-PCAA selection as well... Played in the East-West Shrine game and the Senior Bowl, the first Long Beach player ever selected for the latter... Voted the most valuable defensive player in the PCAA by the loop's coaches... Selected as the MVP of his high school league, playing for Oakmont High School in Roseville, Calif... Also named to the All Northern California team in football and was an all-league selection in basketball... Plans to use some of his football money to set up a scholarship at his high school.

49ers' 1977 FINAL GAME SUMMARIES

49ers 0, STEELERS 27 Three Rivers Stadium (48,046)

The 49ers were unable to generate any appreciable offense against Pittsburgh's stingy defense. San Francisco gained only 101 total net yards, and were held to 19 net yards passing. The 49er defense held their own and the game was close entering the final quarter, Pittsburgh holding a 13-0 advantage by virtue of a 14-yard TD run by Franco Harris and Roy Gerela field goals of 49 and 47 yards. The Steelers struck for two fourth-quarter TDs, a 7vard sweep by Harris, and a 15-yard Terry Bradshaw to John Stallworth pass. On the day, Harris gained an even 100 yards on 27 rushes, Bradshaw hit on 12 of 23 passes for 164 yards, and Lynn Swann had four receptions for 63 yards. Steeler cornerback Jim Allen intercepted two 49er passes with both interceptions leading to Pittsburgh TDs. The 49er "Gold Rush" got off to a good start, sacking Bradshaw three time for 31 yards in losses.

49ers 15, DOLPHINS 19 Candlestick Park (40,503)

The Miami Dolphins, led by Bob Griese and Nat Moore, spoiled the 49ers' home opener. Griese directed the Dolphins' offense in his own efficient manner, hitting on 10 of 17 passes for 169 yards and two TDs. San Francisco opened the scoring on a 4-yard Jim Plunkett TD run, but Miami marched right back for a TD of their own. Moore going 32 yards with a Griese screen pass for the score. Tom Wittum, handling the 49ers' placekicking as well as punting, popped in a 28-yard FG to regain the lead for San Francisco. Following a long drive. Moore skirted right end on a third-and-inches situation and went 19 yards to give Miami a slim halftime edge. The 49er special teams accounted for a TD when Dale Mitchell blocked a Dolphin punt with Mike Baldassin recovering in the end zone. Three plays later, Griese connected with moore again, this time for 73 yards as Moore scored his third TD of the day. Moore caught only three passes on the afternoon, but they went for 113 yards. Delvin Williams led the 49er attack with 82 yards on 15 carries.

The Rams broke open a close contest with 17 points in the last ten minutes of the game and sent the 49ers down to their third consecutive defeat. Rafael Septien opened the scoring on the Rams' first possession with a 33-yard FG.

Jim Plunkett retaliated by leading an 85-yard drive capped by a 17-yard TD strike to Delvin Williams to give the 49ers a short-lived lead. Keeping the ball on the ground, Los Angeles' running backs Lawrence McCutcheon and John Cappelletti each scored on short runs. and the Rams led 17-7 at halftime. San Francisco opened the second half with another long scoring drive, Delvin Williams getting his second TD of the day on a 3-yard burst up the middle, and the 49er deficit was cut to three points. The score remained the same until 49er miscues, a blocked punt and two interceptions. set up 17 points for the Rams. The 49er defense held Los Angeles to only 95 net vards passing and racked up three sacks. On the other side of the coin, the 49er ground game could garner only 48 yards on the day. Gene Washington had a good day, latching on to three passes good for 60 yards.

49ers 0, FALCONS 7 Candlestick Park (38,009)

It was a day for defense as neither team could mount any kind of sustained attack. In a game that appeared as it might go scoreless if the teams played all night, the only score came on a deflected pass in the end zone. On the first play following a partially blocked Tom Wittum punt, Scott Hunter lofted a pass to Alfred Jenkins which he gathered in despite the fact that Ralph McGill got a hand on the ball. The Falcon defense made that TD stand up for the win, Neither Jim Plunkett nor Scott Bull, who replaced Plunkett after he was shaken up in the second quarter, could get the 49er passing game going, and four Falcon sacks left the 49er net passing yardage at 35 for the game.

49ers 17, GIANTS 20 Giants Stadium (70,366)

A furious Jim Plunkett-led fourth guarter comeback bid fell short as 49er turnovers and special teams breakdowns paved the way to the club's fifth consecutive defeat. Ray Wersching, signed just three days before the game, made his 49er debut a successful one, as he connected on his first field goal attempt, a 50-yarder, the longest of his career. 49er mistakes then led the way to 20 unanswered Giant points. A short punt set up a 22-yard FG by Joe Danelo that knotted the score. Subsequently, Wilbur Jackson fumbled in 49er territory and Joe Pisarcik, who threw only six passes all day, completing two, connected with Gary Shirk on a 37-yard TD pass. On the following 49er possession, Ernie Jones blocked a Tom Wittum punt and recovered it on the 49er 2-yard-line. Willie Spencer bulled over for the TD. The Giants' final points were set up by a 63yard punt return by Bob Hammond, Danelo hitting a 22-yard FG that would prove to be the margin of victory. Plunkett rallied the 49ers to two TDs in the final period, a 1-yard plunge by Wilbur Jackson and a 47-yard pass to Gene Washington. It was one of Plunkett's best days of the season as he hit on 15 of 22 passes for 224 yards. The 49er defense also played well, yielding only 154 yards total offense and a mere 23 yards passing.

49ers 28, LIONS 7 Candlestick Park (39,392)

The 49er offense came to life and the defense played its best overall game of the season as San Francisco rolled over the Lions and got into the win column for the first time in 1977. San Francisco jumped on top early as Jim Plunkett hit Gene Washington with TD strikes of 32 and 35 yards. Washington had four catches for 112 yards on the day. Detroit responded with a 1-yard TD plunge by Dexter Bussey, but two plays later Wilbur Jackson skirted left end, broke a tackle, and streaked 48 vards for a score. Jackson picked up 76 yards on 12 carries, and Delvin Williams had his first 100-yard day of the season, gaining 106 yards in 27 carries, including a 6-yard sweep that closed out the scoring. The 49er defense was overwhelming, allowing the Lions only 119 vards on the day, and recording a season-high eight sacks, administered to three different Detroit guarterbacks. Cedrick Hardman led the sack parade with three to his credit. Dave Washington and Ralph McGill each intercepted a pass returning them 50 and 30 yards respectively.

Playing sound football both offensively and defensively, the 49ers rolled over Tampa Bay in the first-ever meeting between the two clubs. extra period to give San Francisco its fourth and Wilbur Jackson, San Francisco scored two first-half TDs and the Bucs could never catch up. Jackson got the first score on a 2-yard plunge and on the 49ers next possession, Williams found a big hole off right tackle and sped 35 yards for a TD. Tampa Bay got on the board with a 29-yard Allain Leavitt FG, but Ray Wersching responded with two of his own, hitting from 31 and 43 yards out. Louis Carter closed out the scoring with a late TD run. Tom Mitchell had his best day receiving as a 49er, hauling in six Jim Plunkett passes for 61 yards. Williams ended the day with 94 yards on 21 carries, with Jackson adding 85 yards on 18 rushes. The 49er defense held the Bucs to only 104 yards rushing and Cleveland Elam accounted for four of the "Gold Rush's" five

49ers 10, FALCONS 3 Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium (46,577)

In a brutal defensive struggle in rain-soaked Atlanta, the 49ers avenged their earlier loss to the Falcons. Neither team could manage a score in the first half, but the 49ers got on the board early in the third quarter for all the points they would need. Paul Hofer returned the second-half kickoff 41 yards and the 49ers patiently drove for the game's only TD, a 2-yard plunge by Wilbur Jackson. Tony Leonard then recovered a Falcon fumble and Ray Wersching turned it into three points with a 43-yard FG. Fred Steinfort's 24-yard FG accounted for Atlanta's only score of the day. The 49er defense completely stifled Falcon QB Steve Bartkowski, limiting him to 30 net yards passing. Dave Washington and Mel Phillips each nabbed an interception and Bartkowski was sacked seven times for 75 yards in losses. Cleveland Elam and Cedrick Hardman leading the way with two sacks apiece. The 49er special teams played their part in the win, in particular Tom Wittum, who kept the Falcons at bay with 10 punts for 413 yards, and Leonard, who returned seven punts for 67 yards.

49ers 10, SAINTS 7 Louisiana Superdome (41,564)

The 49ers got their first-ever overtime victory as Ray Wersching booted a 33-yard FG in the extra period to give San Francisco it fourth consecutive win. New Orleans got on the board first by virtue of an 8-yard run by Tony Galbreath. Delvin Williams knotted it up with a 5-yard blast and regulation time ended with the score tied at seven. The Saints won the toss and elected to receive in the overtime period but were unable to move and had to give up the ball to the 49ers. Starting from their own 41-yard line, San Francisco moved to the Saints' 16-yard line with Williams and Wilbur Jackson picking up the bulk of the yardage. Wersching connected on the game-winner from there. Jackson and Williams both went over the 100-yard mark on the day, Jackson gaining 123 on 22 carries, Williams picking up 110 on 25 rushes. The 49er defense continued its superb play, holding Bobby Douglass to just 33 net yards passing, and Cleveland Elam added two more sacks to his total.

49ers 10, RAMS 23 Candlestick Park (56,779)

The Rams brought the 49ers' four-game winning streak to a halt with a hard-fought win at Candlestick Park. As in the first meeting of the year between the two clubs, the game was close until 49er turnovers allowed the Rams to pull away in the final guarter. Ray Wersching opened the scoring with a 37-yard FG which was matched by Rafael Septien who booted one from 45 yards out. Pat Haden hit Billy Waddy with a 26-yard scoring strike after Pat Thomas blocked a 49er punt, to give the Rams a TD edge at half time. Lawrence McCutcheon widened the gap with a 42-yard TD run, but Delvin Williams scored from four yards out on the first play of the fourth quarter to narrow the margin to seven points. Septien came on to kick field goals of 25 and 20 yards to close out the scoring. San Francisco led the Rams in almost every statistical category, but three interceptions by Ram free safety Bill Simpson proved instrumental in deciding the outcome. In a battle between two of the league's leading rushers, McCutcheon gained an even 100 yards on 22 carries, while Williams rushed 22 times for 98 yards.

49ers 20, SAINTS 17 Candlestick Park (33,702)

Ray Wersching did in the Saints for the second time in three weeks with a 42-yard field goal on the last play of the game. However, it was the running of Wilbur Jackson that brought the 49ers back from a 14-point deficit for the last-second win. Jackson had the best day of his career, gaining 190 yards (only four yards short of the 49er single-game record) on only 16 carries, and scoring both 49er TDs. He accomplished this despite leaving the game with an injury early in the fourth guarter. New Orleans opened the scoring on a 30-yard Rich Szaro field goal, but Jackson brought the 49ers back with an 80-yard run that set up Wersching for a 40-yard field goal. Clarence Chapman returned the ensuing kickoff 92 yards for the Saints and Archie Manning gave New Orleans another score with a 1-yard plunge. Jackson and Delvin Williams, who had 77 yards on the day, led the 49ers to two TDs, Jackson getting them both on a 34-yard dash and a 1-yard burst. The two TDs tied the score and set the stage for Wersching's last-second kick. On the day, the 49er offense gained 343 yards, a season-high 282 on the ground. The defense also contributed, holding the Saints to 19 net vards passing and sacking Manning three times

49ers 27, VIKINGS 28 Metropolitan Stadium (40,745)

Trailing 24-7, rookie quarterback Tommy Kramer bombed the 49ers with three TD passes in the last 12 minutes to lead the Vikings to an incredible come-from-behind win. On a cold, windy day, the 49ers seemed to have matters well in hand in going out to a 24-0 lead. Delvin Williams, who had 107 yards rushing on the day, opened the scoring with a 2-yard run. Ray Wersching tacked on a 31-yard field goal to give San Francisco a 10-0 halftime edge. Heretofore unheralded Dave Williams stole the show in the third quarter. In a span of eight minutes he returned a kickoff 80 yards for a TD, recovered a Viking fumble on a punt, and returned a punt 60 yards to the Minnesota 5yard line, setting up a second Delvin Williams TD. Bob Lee finally got the Vikings on the scoreboard with a 15-yard scoring pass to Brent McClanahan before Kramer came in for his last-quarter heroics. The rookie quarterback hit Ahmad Rashad for an 8-yard TD pass and came right back with a 9-yard scoring strike to Bob Tucker after the Vikings recovered an onside kick. Wersching hit a 31-yard field goal to give the 49ers a six-point margin, but, after recovering a 49er fumble, Minnesota struck for the decisive score, a 69-vard bomb from Kramer to Sammy White.

49ers 35, COWBOYS 42 Candlestick Park (55,848)

The 49ers and the Cowboys had a wild and wooly shootout, racking up 77 points between them, the most ever scored on a Monday night telecast. It was all offense as the two teams combined for 760 yards, 398 for Dallas, 362 for San Francisco, in a turnover-free game. Jim Plunkett had his best day as a 49er, completing 15 of 29 passes for 263 yards, no interceptions, and four TD passes, all to different receivers. Roger Staubach responded by hitting on 14 of 19 passes for 220 yards and three TDs. San Francisco opened the scoring with Bob Ferrell plunging in for a 1-yard score, but Staubach came right back for a TD, keeping it himself from a yard out. On the Cowboys' next possesion, Preston Pearson turned a screen pass into a 36-yard TD, but Plunkett knotted the score with his first TD pass, a 10-yarder to Kenny Harrison. Tony Dorsett then scored twice, taking a 20-yard pass from Staubach for one. and streaking 21 yards on a sweep for the other. From that point on the teams traded TDs. Gene Washington, who had five catches for 130 yards, gathered in a 27-yard scoring strike from Plunkett. Staubach found Butch Johnson in the endzone from 22 yards out. Plunkett's turn-this time to Delvin Williams in a rollout from the 1-yard-line. Preston Pearson scored on a 3-yard drive for Dallas, and Plunkett closed out the scoring with a 47-yard bomb to Paul Seal.

49ers 14, PACKERS 16 Milwaukee County Stadium (44,902)

The 49er season ended on a frustrating note with a closing loss to the Packers. A Jim Plunkett pass was intercepted by Willie Buchanon on the 49ers' first possession, leading to a 24-yard Chester Marcol field goal. Plunkett came back with a 9-yard TD pass to Gene Washington, who had six catches for 97 vards on the day. Rookie guarterback David Whitehurst retaliated, hitting Rich McGeorge on a screen pass that scored from seven yards out. Whitehurst looked anything but a rookie as he connected on 17 of 22 passes for 219 yards. Buchanon intercepted his second pass, returning it 29 yards for what would prove to be the decisive score. Just before halftime, Wilbur Jackson made good on a draw for a 29-yard TD. Neither team could mount a scoring threat in the second half and the Packers hung on for the victory.

THE FORTY NINER STORY — 1946-1978

A feeling exists in the Bay Area that the San Francisco 49ers, in their 32nd year of existence, are on the verge of returning to prominence in the National Football League.

Under the leadership of Edward J. DeBartolo, Jr., at 32 the youngest owner in the NFL, and General Manager Joe Thomas, football's premier builder of championship teams, the 49ers are regaining the attention of the nation's football fans. A new coach, Pete McCulley, and the acquisition of the incomparable running back, O.J. Simpson, add to the excitement for 1978.

From a somewhat modest beginning, the 49ers have become in their 32 years one of the more successful franchises in professional sports.

Anthony J. (Tony) Morabito, a native San Franciscan and 1931 graduate of the University of Santa Clara, was the man who began it all. He tried for a number of years to interest the NFL in a San Francisco franchise, but had no success. In 1946, the late Arch Ward, then sports editor of the Chicago Tribune, conceived and brought to life the All-America Football Conference with the 49ers as charter members.

Although the AAFC went under after four years of intense competition with the NFL, it proved Morabito's point that San Francisco was a major league city and the 49ers, along with the Baltimore Colts and Cleveland Browns, became members of The National Football League in 1950.

From the outset, Tony, joined later by his brother Vic, built the 49ers around exciting names like Buck Shaw, who was the club's first coach, and players like Frankie Albert, Norm Standlee, Alyn Beals, Johnny Strzykalski and Len Eshmont, in the early years, and, later, Y.A. Tittle, Hugh McElhenny, Joe Perry, Billy Wilson, Gordy Soltau and Leo Nomellini.

And the team has always been characterized by enthusiastic, exciting football, a tradition that carried through the days of the AAFC into the NFL and through today, with the 49ers remaining as colorful and exciting as The City they represent.

Here are the team's historical highlights beginning with its first year in the NFL:

- 1950 The 49ers fell flat on their faces in their NFL debut, winning only three games. A rival coach described them as "not big enough or tough enough."
- 1951 In an amazing reversal of form sparked by a great rookie group, the 49ers were in the race to the final day and finished only a half game off the top. Led by Hardy Brown and his famed "shoulder tackle," the club had one of the toughest defensive units in the league. Y.A. Tittle and Billy Wilson began their great careers.
- 1952 After a blazing start, the 49ers slumped in midseason. It can't be written off as unsuccessful for Hugh (The King) McElhenny came off the University of Washington campus to become "Player of the Year" and the most feared runner in football.
- 1953 The 49ers had their best NFL showing, 9-3, normally good enough for a championship. But Detroit was 10-2. Two of the San Francisco losses came with Tittle benched because of a severe facial injury. The three defeats were by a total of nine points. Joe (Jet) Perry became one of the few players in pro history to gain more than 1,000 yards in a single season. Gordy Soltau was the league's top scorer for the second straight year.
- 1954 Early momentum was broken by injuries to key players such as Tittle, McElhenny, and Joe Perry. Perry gained more than 1,000 yards again, the first man ever to achieve this distinction.
- 1955 With McElhenny hobbled by a foot injury, the 49ers had their second worst season in history under Norman P. Strader who succeeded Shaw as head coach.
- 1956 In Albert's first year at the helm, the 49ers were bogged in last place at midseason with a 1-6 record. They won four and tied one of their last five games for a brilliant stretch drive.
- 1957 This undoubtedly was the most emotional and dramatic season in 49er history. Every game was a "Cliffhanger" and the "Alley-Oop" pass from Tittle to rookie R.C. Owens became a household byword. Emotions reached a peak when the beloved Tony Morabito collapsed and died of a heart attack at the Chicago Bears game on Oct. 27. Trailing, 17-7, the 49ers fought back for their greatest victory of all time, 21-17. The magnificent Wilson caught a pass from Tittle for the winning touchdown in the fourth quarter. Tied with Detroit at 8-4 when the season ended, the 49ers lost the playoff game, 31-27, although they held a 27-7 lead in the third quarter.

- 1958 An up-and-down season which finished on a high note when Green Bay and Baltimore were defeated in the last two games. The 6-6 record, however, was blackened by the 33-3 and 56-7 lacings at the hands of Los Angeles and Albert resigned at the end of the year.
- 1959 With Hickey in charge, the 49ers were in contention all the way and John Brodie came into his own at quarterback when he led the team to a 21-20 upset of Cleveland. J.D. Smith, converted from a defensive back, became the second 49er to accumulate more than 1,000 yards rushing."
- 1960 Hickey saved a seemingly hopeless season when he installed his Shotgun attack and the club captured four of the last five games to finish in a tie for second place. Third-string quarterback Bobby Waters threw the passes that upset Baltimore. 30-22. in the final two minutes.
- 1961 The success of Hickey's Shotgun amazed the football world, expecially the 49-0 victory over Detroit. Quarterback Bill Kilmer, a passing-running rookie from UCLA, was made to order for the new offense. When the Shotgun was stopped, Brodie took over again in the T and had the finest season in 49er q.b. annals. Indicating the evenness of NFL competition, the 49ers were playing for a second-place tie, plus a trip to the Runner-up Boowl at Miami, or a fifth-place position on the last day of the season. The Colts again won by three points, but 1961 must remain as one of the most exciting and interesting years in 49er history.
- 1962 For the first time since 1956, the 49ers finished the frustrating season with more defeats than victories. In so doing, the honored adage of "it's easier to win at home than on the road," proved false—the 49ers won only one of seven at home, but captured five of seven road contests.
- 1963 Injuries in multitude to key personnel started the 49ers off to a disappointing 2-12 league season. One of the victories, however, was a smashing 20-14 upset of ultimate World Champion Chicago, the only league defeat suffered by the Bears all season.
- 1964 Club chief executive Victory P. Morabito died of a heart attack in May. Injury to key personnel prevented the 49ers from gaining enough offensive momentum to forge a winning season, although they proved to be one of the toughest defensive clubs in the league. Outstanding rookie performances by end Dave Parks, quarterback George Mira and linebacker Dave Wilcox also took some of the sting from the 4-10 overall record.
- 1965 Outstanding offensive performances enabled the 49ers to jump from the bottom to fourth place in the Western Division as the team led the NFL in both scoring and total offense. John Brodie was the most productive passer in the NFL, Dave Parks led the league in receiving and rookie Ken Willard and veteran John David Crow, acquired in an off-season trade, led a strong ground game. The over-all record was 7-6-1 and the season-opening 52-24 beating of the Chicago Bears marked the largest number of points ever scored by the 49ers in NFL play.
- 1966 After a somewhat slow start, the 49ers got in gear just before midway in the season and became one of only two teams to beat the eventual World Champion Green Bay Packers. After that, they rolled to a respectable 6-6-2 record and were in the battle for second place in the Western Division until the final league game. Guard John Thomas and end Dave Parks were All Pro, and they joined guard Howard Mudd, center Bruce Bosley, fullback Ken Willard and linebacker Dave Wilcox in the Pro Bowl.
- 1967 An auspicious start (they were 5-1) disintegrated into disappointment for the 49ers as injuries took a heavy toll and a six-game losing streak took them out of the running. Quarterback George Mira came off the bench to lead the squad to two season-ending victories and salvage a 7-7 record. There were bright spots however, as, with John Brodie in fine form, the 49ers were the only team to beat the power-laden Rams in a league game, guard Howard Mudd and linebacker Dave Wilcox were named to All-Pro teams, and Mudd and center Bruce Bosley played in the Pro Bowl for the second straight time.
- 1968 Under new coach Dick Nolan the 49ers posted a 7-6-1 record as the season turned on key wins over New York, 26-10, and Green Bay, 27-20. Brilliant performances by QB John Brodie, receiver Clif McNeil and running back Ken Willard led a prolific offense, while tackle Charlie Krueger, linebacker Dave Wilcox and defensive back Kermit Alexander, sparked a revitalized defense. McNeil and guard Howard Mudd were chosen All-NFL, and joined by Wilcox, Willard and Alexander in the Pro Bowl.
- 1969 Beset by injuries that nearly decimated the defensive unit, the 49ers struggled through the early part of the season, went five game before beating Baltimore, the first time they had done that in 13 previous games. It got a little better after that (final record was 4-8-2) and five players—Jim Johnson, Dave Wilcox, Elmer Collett, Ken Willard and rookie Gene Washington—were selected for the Pro Bowl. Johnson was also All-Pro and winner of the Eshmont Award.

- 1970 This was the greatest year since the club became a member of the NFL in 1950. The 10-3-1 record was the best as an NFL club, the Western Division (NFC) championship was the first in the NFL. In a season of superlatives, John Brodie was the NFL's "Player of the Year," Bruce Taylor was NFC "Rookie of the Year," Coach Dick Nolan was a near-unanimous choice as NFC "Coach of the year." Brodie, receiver Gene Washington, linebacker Dave Wilcox and cornerback Jimmy Johnson were All-Pro and joined by tackle Len Rohde in being selected for the Pro Bowl.
- 1971 The 49ers forged a 9-5-0 record and won their second consecutive NFC Western Division title, clinching the crown on the final day by beating Detroit, 31-27, the identical score by which the Lions had knocked the 49ers out of championship play in the bitterly-remembered 1957 game. The season was also the club's first in its plush new home, Candlestick Park. Center Forrest Blue, linebacker Dave Wilcox and cornerback Jimmy Johnson were All-Pro and joined in the Pro Bowl by Ted Kwalick, Gene Washington, Vic Washington, Cedrick Hardman and Bruce Taylor.
- 1972 Early-season inconsistency compounded by an injury to John Brodie in the fifth game of the season cast a pall on 49er prospects for a third-straight NFC West title, but Steve Spurrier stepped in for Brodie and turned things around with a brilliant, poised performance. In the final quarter of the final game the recovered Brodie relieved Steve, threw two TD passes for 20-17 win over Minnesota that clinched NFC West title No. 3, but Spurrier's nine-game contribution was the key. Center Forrest Blue, defensive back Jimmy Johnson, tight end Ted Kwalick, wide receiver Gene Washington and linebacker Dave Wilcox were All-Pro selections.
- 1973 In what was both a disappointing and significant year, the 49ers were 5-9 after tackling the NFL's toughest schedule and falling victim to a rash of key injuries and an unsettled quarterback situation. It also marked the end of the brilliant careers of quarterback John Brodie and defensive tackle Charlie Krueger, both of whom retired at year's end. Center Forrest Blue and Dave Wilcox were All-Pro and joined in the Pro Bowl by Ted Kwalick, Woody Peoples and Tom Wittum.
- 1974 The 49ers used five different quarterbacks after an injury to starter Steve Spurrier a week before the season opened sidelined him for most of the year. After winning the first two games, the club lost a team record seven straight and then closed with a rush, winning four of the last five games to finish the season at 6-8. Running back Wilbur Jackson was named SPORTING NEWS "Rooke of the Year" and was named to the NFL All-Rookie team along with quarterback Tom Owen and defensive back Mike Holmes. Center Forrest Blue and punter Tom Wittum were All-NFC and selected for the Pro Bowl along with Jimmy Johnson. A knee injury forced perennial All-Pro linebacker Dave Wilcox to retire after a brilliant 11-year career with the 49ers.
- 1975 A strong defensive performance throughout the season couldn't offset an erratic offense troubled by an unsettled quarterback situation and a rebuilding offensive line. High point of the 5-9 season was a 24-23 win over Los Angeles in Los Angeles to end a 10-game losing streak to the Rams. At season's end, defensive end Cedrick Hardman was the club's only All-Pro selection and only player chosen for the Pro Bowl. Jimmy Johnson became the club's first-ever two-time Eshmont Award winner.
- 1976 A turnaround year for the 49ers as the team, under coach Monte Clark, posted an 8-6 record, their first winning season since 1972. With new quarterback Jim Plunkett at the controls, the 49ers got off to their best start ever, 6-1, before hitting a mid-season four-game losing streak that knocked the club out of playoff contention. The season saw the emergence of a powerful defensive unit that led the league in quarterback sacks with 61. Delvin Williams set a 49er single-season rushing record with his 1,203 yards on the ground. Tommy Hart was named All-Pro and played in the Pro Bowl along with Williams, Cleveland Elam, and Dave Washington. Center Randy Cross was a NFL All-Rookie team selection. Tommy Hart became a two-time winner of the Eshmont Award. Cornerback Jimmy Johnson retired after a brilliant 16-year career with the 49ers.
- 1977 In the 32nd year of their existence, the 49ers began an all new era. On March 31, 1977, the club became the property of Edward J. DeBartolo, Jr., and came under the guidance of Joe Thomas as general manager. The changeover was made more dramatic because the San Francisco 49ers were one of the few NFL franchises which had never previously changed ownership or location. On the field, under Coach Ken Meyer, the 49ers ran hot and cold. The club lost its first five games, then won five of the next six before dropping the final three contests for a 5-9 record overall. Strong safety Mel Phillips was named winner of the coveted Eshmont Award. Cleveland Elam was selected All-Pro and played for the NFC team in the Pro Bowl.

MISCELLANY

"Name" Backfields

The San Francisco 49ers have been known for their "name" backfields. From 1954 through 1956 it was "The Million Dollar Backfield" of Y.A. Tittle, Joe Perry, Hugh McElhenny and John Henry Johnson. Then, in 1960, came "The Alphabet Backfield" of Y.A. Tittle, J.D. Smith, R.C. Owens and C.B. Boberts

Hall of Fame

Three members of San Francisco's "Million Dollar Backfield" of the mid-1950's are enshrined in Pro Football's Hall of Fame. They are Y.A. Tittle, Joe Perry and Hugh McElhenny. Another member of that same team, tackle Leo Nomellini, is also a member of the Hall of Fame.

Nomellini

Former San Francisco 49er tackle Leo "The Lion" Nomellini is a member of Pro Football's Hall of Fame, but he also has another distinction. He is the only player ever to make All-Pro both on offense and defense since two-platoon all-stars have been selected. Nomellini was an All-Pro choice on offense in 1951 and 1952, then switched to defense and was an All-Pro selection in 1953, 1954, 1957 and 1959 as a defender. Leo also played in 10 Pro Bowl games, two on offense, eight on defense.

Retired Jerseys

The San Francisco 49ers have officially retired six jerseys in their 32-year history. Those retired are, in order of their retirement, No. 34, Joe "The Jet" Perry; No. 39, Hugh McElhenny; No. 73, Leo Nomellini; No. 12, John Brodie; No. 70 Charlie Krueger, No. 37 Jimmy Johnson.

LEN ESHMONT AWARD

In 1977, strong safety Mel Phillips became the third 49er to win the coveted Len Eshmont Memorial Award for a second time (the others were Jimmy Johnson in 1969 and 1975, and Tommy Hart in 1972 and 1976). Phillips had previously won the award in 1973.

A secret ballot by the 49ers players before the last home game of the season determines the winner of the award. Eshmont, a Fordham graduate, was a member of the first 49ers squad in 1946. He subsequently coached at the Naval Academy and the University of Virginia before his untimely death in May of 1957.

49ers founder Tony Morabito established the award in 1957.

SCHEDULING FORMAT

The 49ers' 1979 schedule will be determined by the team's placing in the National Football Conference's Western Division in 1978. The 16-game schedule is based upon a format adopted by the NFL beginning with the 1978 season. Opponents and sites are pre-determined by this format, with dates announced by the NFL office in April.

Each team in the division will play home and away games with each of the other teams in the NFC West, for a total of six games. Then, additional games will be according to the following formula:

(LEGEND: AFC=AFC East, B=AFC Central, C=AFC West, D—NFC East, E=NFC West, F=NFC Central; numbers following the letters refer to division placing in 1978).

First place in the NFC WEST — Home: D-5, C-2, C-4, D-4, F-1; Away: F-5, C-1, C-3, D-1, F-4. Second place in the NFC West — Home: F-5, C-1, C-3, D-3, F-2; Away: D-5, C-2, C-4, D-2, F-3. Third place in the NFC West — Home: D-5, C-2, C-4, D-2, F-3; Away: F-5, C-1, C-3, D-3, F-2. Fourth place in the NFC West — Home: F-5, C-1, C-3, D-1, F-4; Away: D-5, C-2, C-4, D-4, F-1.

49ERS RADIO

Veteran sportscaster Lon Simmons and San Francisco's KSFO radio each join the 49ers this season in celebrating the 22nd anniversary of their association. Simmons, KSFO and the 49ers first teamed in producing 49ers radio broadcasts in 1957, and the association has continued without interruption every NFL season since.

KSFO will serve as the flagship station for the broadcasts on the Golden West Network. Stations in the network also include: KINS (980), Eureka; KDAC (1230), Fort Bragg; KMJ (580), Fresno; KHVH, Honolulu; KBEE (970), Modesto; KOCN-FM (104.9), Monterey; KWSD (620), Mt. Shasta; KQMS (1400), Redding; KOH (630), Reno; KFBK (1530), Sacramento; KVML (1450), Sonora; KUKI (1400), Ukiah; KSYC (1490), Yreka.

49ERS TELEVISION

Indicative of the attention being paid to the direction taken by the 49ers program, San Francisco will be on national telecasts five times during 1978, twice in the pre-season and three times in the regular season.

The 49ers game with Oakland at Candlestick Park on Sunday, Aug. 20, will be carried by NBC, while the 49ers-Broncos game at Denver on Friday, Aug. 25, will get national billing on ABC.

During the regular season, both games with the Rams — at Los Angeles on Oct. 8 and at Candlestick Nov. 19 — will be carried by CBS, while the Monday night battle with Pittsburgh at Candlestick will be the ABC Game of the Week.

All regular season contests on the road will be shown locally on the CBS affiliate, KPIX, Channel 5. The status of local telecasts of home games is dependent upon that particular game being a sellout.

During the pre-season, KBHK-TV, Channel 44, will broadcast live the 49ers game at Dallas, and also will carry, via delay, the home game with Seattle. This will mark the sixth season that KBHK has handled the pre-season telecasts of 49ers games. Don Klein will handle the play-by-play.

TRADES SINCE LAST PUBLICATION

Acquired WR Larry Jones from Washington for TE Tom Mitchell.

Acquired RB Greg Boykin from New Orleans for DB Ralph McGill.

Traded LB Dave Washington to Detroit for future considerations.

Acquired RB O.J. Simpson from Buffalo for five draft choices: second and third round selections in 1978, first and fourth round selections in 1979, and second choice in 1980.

Acquired WR Freddie Solomon, DB Vern Roberson, Miami's first round and fifth round selections in 1978 for RB Delvin Williams.

Acquired Chicago's second round draft choice in 1978 for DE Tommy Hart.

Acquired LB Joe Harris from Washington for Minnesota's sixth round draft choice in 1978 (previously acquired for Nate Allen).

Acquired G Steve Knutson from Green Bay for future considerations.

Acquired OT Kurt Schumacher from New Orleans for future considerations.

STADIUM INFORMATION

The San Francisco 49ers begin their eighth year in Candlestick Park, now recognized as one of the better combination stadiums in the United States.

The "new" Candlestick was completed in 1972 (the 49ers played in the park while it was still under construction in 1971), and completely encircled, carpeted with Astroturf, furnished throughout with comfortable chairs (no bleachers), surrounded by adequate parking space, it was an immediate hit as a football facility.

The stadium seats 61,246 for football. There are three major ticket plazas and entry levels. Every seat in the stadium is a chairtype plastic unit for comfort and durability.

Completely double-decked, the park features a 6,000-seat movable section. Astroturf facilitates rapid conversion from baseball to football configuration.

Other facts:

Original ground-breaking for Candlestick Park was in 1958. The expansion program began November 19, 1969.

The stadium covers 141/2-acres on an 82-acre site.

Stadium diameter is 680 feet at its shortest, 840 feet at its longest.

The highest point from field to roof is 120 feet.

There are 29 concession stands, 54 rest rooms.

There are parking spaces for 14,400 automobiles in the stadium and auxiliary lots, as well as space for 175 buses.

Stadium construction required 1,034 tons of structural steel, 8,000 tons of reinforcing steel and 50,000 cubic yards of concrete.

STADIUM DIRECTORY:

First Aid is located on the main level concourse opposite Section 7.

Police Station is located on main level concourse opposite Section 5.

Lost and Found is in the Burns Security Office on the mezzanine level opposite Section 7. Telephones are located throughout the stadium. Specifically, at each ticket plaza, along the main concourse and along the upper mezzanine level.

"WILL CALL" window is at Gate A, south end of the stadium.

Gates A, E and F provide escalator service to the upper seating levels and are reversible for exiting after the game.

TICKET INFORMATION

Prices — Reserved seats $10.00, $9.00 and $5.00.

When available, reserved seat tickets for individual games will be on sale at all Ticketron and BASS outlets and at the 49er ticket office in Candlestick Park, San Francisco 94124. Mail orders will be accepted.

Ticket office telephone: (415) 468-2249.

MEDIA INFORMATION

The football press box at Candlestick Park will open three hours prior to game time. Food service will be available in the press box.

Sportscom and Canfax services will both be available in the press box and each will provide runners for copy.

All credential request should be made to Dave Frei in the 49er office no later than Wednesday prior to the game to be covered, if possible. No individual game credentials will be mailed. There is a special press "will call" booth at Gate A at Candlestick Park.

There is a limited amount of photo deck space available, so all requests for camera positions should be made as early as possible. When the space is allocated, additional requests must be refused. Photo positions are on the second level of the press box and on the balcony areas on either end of the first level outside.

The press box is accessible only from the elevator from ground level. The elevator makes only one stop — at the press box.

With two minutes remaining in each game a member of the 49er public relations staff will guide writers to the team dressing rooms.

Photographers working on the field are asked to check in at the dugout at the south end (first base line) of the stadium. They will be issued arm bands upon presentation of their credential. They will be admitted to the press box at halftime.
